Bogus Money Seized

VANCOUVER (CP)—An attempt to flood this city with an estimated $2,000,000 in counterfeit bills was cracked wide open Monday night in a series of police raids and seizures.

Two men were arrested and more than $2,500 in bogus bills was recovered—most of it at the Pacific National Exhibition and at Exhibition Park racetrack.

City police estimated 500 counterfeit bills had been passed at the P.N.E. and reported "there's $2,000,000 worth of that stuff around town."

WERE GIVEN TIP

The R.C.M.P. said they had received a tip that a quantity of the phony bills was being flown here from eastern Canada.

In Toronto one man was arrested and three others were picked up in Niagara Falls, Ont., with counterfeit money in their possession. Also recovered were 60 different stamps used for marking the money with serial numbers.

Latest count here showed $230 in $10 bills was returned to concessionaires by the banks; $100 among P.N.E. receipts; $500 among race track receipts; $600 passed in Chinatown and it is reported "hundreds" of bogus bills were taken in by the bank of Montreal at the exhibition.

REJECTED BILLS

As soon as the alarm went out stand operators at the P.N.E. refused to accept $10 bills. Four bogus bills were found among circus receipts.

Police said one of the two men had tried to pass a phony bank note at a lunch stand and had when questioned. He was stopped outside and search showed he had $300 in bogus bills and $170 in legitimate money.

A friend of the first man, seen earlier scalping circus tickets outside and search showed he had held. Police described them as "small fry" and "pushers."

No Serious Holiday Highway Accidents

Although traffic on the highways was heavy during the holiday week-end, city, municipal and B.C. police reported no accidents of a serious nature throughout the area. Police today, however, pointed out to the motoring public that the 15-mile-an-hour speed limit through school zones is back in effect with the reopening of schools today.

Tragedy In Air Races Rouses Citizens' Ire

CLEVELAND (AP)—Sport flying's richest and toughest race faced a new threat to continuance today with the death of distance flier Bill Odom and two suburban residents.

Odom's death plunge into a Berea home during the second lap of the Thompson Trophy event Monday revived protests of area residents against the low-flying speedsters, shrieking over their homes at 400 miles an hour. The dark green racer, a converted fighter, ripped through the house, killing Mrs. Jeanne Laird, 24, and her year-old son, Craig.

The body was found floating in the lake by three navy men on a fishing trip. Police do not believe death was due to foul play.

West May Give Tito Supplies

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UP)—Reliable reports indicated today that Britain and the United States may provide Marshal Tito with some of the supplies denied him by Russia.

The supplies, mostly heavy equipment, are expected to be provided through $60,000,000 in direct loans, $25,000,000 from the U.S. Export-Import Bank and $35,000,000 in British credits.

The $36,000,000 British credit will be part of a five-year trade pact between Britain and Yugoslavia calling for an exchange of about $500,000,000 in goods each way.

The American loan will be used for the purchase of machinery to modernize the rich copper, lead and zinc mines in Yugoslavia. The loan probably will be repaid by deliveries of these metals, which the U.S. is stockpiling.

Refusal of Russia to supply heavy industrial equipment to Yugoslavia was one of the reasons for Tito's dispute with Josef Stalin. Russia wanted Yugoslavia to remain an agricultural nation.

Some sources believed that the recent Russian manoeuvres and propaganda blasts were designed to scare off western investments in Yugoslavia. The American and British loans in effect will be an answer to the Russians.

Simultaneously, a member of the Yugoslav Communist party politician, Milovan Djilas, charged that Russia was making profits from eastern Europe through its system of joint companies.

Hottest Day Of Year For Week-End Holiday

The sun set records for Victoria and Island during the holiday week-end as perfect weather conditions reigned throughout the three days and temperatures reached the high seventies and low eighties.

Current warm spell in the city has now stretched to its 12th consecutive day and clear skies and warm weather are scheduled to continue for the better part of the week.

Sultry weather here Saturday was followed by a slight electrical storm during the night, resulting in a light rainfall. In some up-island centres, however, there was a heavier fall as

Advice Before The Plunge

For her attempt to swim the English Channel, which failed today, Shirley May France was coached by Harry Boudakian, shown with her above.

Shirley Quits Channel Swim Six Miles Short

IN THE ENGLISH CHANNEL, (AP)—Shirley May France was six miles from the English shore today at 3:35 p.m. (7:35 a.m. P.D.T.) in her attempt to swim the English Channel.

The 17-year-old girl from Somerset, Mass., gave up at 4:05 p.m. (8:05 a.m. P.D.T.) when she was less than six miles from England. She had been in the icy water 10½ hours.

She was estimated to have covered more than 30 miles of swimming. The Channel is only 19 miles from Cap Gris Nez, France, where she started, to Dover, England—but tides force Channel swimmers to cover much more than that.

Shirley May was moaning when her coach, Harry Boudakian, pulled her from the water. She had pleaded with him for 20 minutes not to make her give up.

The girl struggled against Boudakian when he leaned over the side of the rowboat to pull her in.

She was hysterical and kept crying: "Look how near it is." She had been within sight of the white cliffs of Dover for more than two hours.

"Leave me! Leave me!" she cried.

Men swimmers from an accompanying launch jumped into the water and held her against the side of a rowboat as she tried to get away.

Shirley May's father, J. Walter France, was in tears, too.

"Never mind baby, never mind," he said.

TIDE SHIFTED

He had tried to talk her into giving up several hours before, when the tide was running against her. A sudden shift in the tide's flow had boosted her chances then.

"I can come another year, sweetheart," the father said.

The end of her attempt came shortly after she had taken a cupful of hot broth.

Her coach asked her then if she wanted to quit. She shouted back, "No."

Britain Wants To Spend Marshall Dollars Anywhere

WASHINGTON (CP)—Britain will ask permission to spend Marshall Plan dollars anywhere she likes—not just in the United States—as one way out of her financial crisis, officials said today.

Diplomatic authorities said For-on his way here for three-power talks on Britain's economic plight —is convinced his country shortly will have to dip into her dwindling reserves for millions of dollars unless Marshall Plan policies are relaxed.

Bevin and Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, are due in New York tonight aboard the liner Mauretania for the British-American-Canadian financial conference opening tomorrow at the State Department.

Top diplomats of the three governments are reported pessimistic about finding an immediate formula for solving Britain's long-range problem.

Finance Minister Abbott of Canada, who arrived Monday night with Hon. L. B. Pearson, External Affairs Minister, and other Canadian government officials, told reporters he hopes "we will be able to achieve some useful work," but he added: "One should not expect miracles."

Police Fight Off Angry Mob Wanting To 'Hang Him Now'

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A 22-year-old war veteran went berserk today and shot and killed 12 persons.

Five others were wounded. Killed in the 45-minute blast of bullets were two small boys, five women and five men.

Police authorities here said they believe it was the greatest mass slaughter on a city street in the history of the United States.

Detective Marshall Thompson said the busy street on which the mass killings were done "looked like a battlefield."

Bodies were strewn all over the street.

Thompson said the killer was identified as Harold Unruh.

The policemen said Unruh barricaded himself in a second-floor room and exchanged bullets with more than 50 policemen.

Tear gas finally brought him out. He was not wounded.

Thompson said police had a terrible time with men and women on the streets. He said police had to go into the line of fire to pull dead men from cars.

They stopped for a traffic light," Thompson said. "Then they got it."

Under heavy guard, police took the man to headquarters.

They had to fight off an angry mob of more than 1,000 who screamed "lynch him" and "hang him now."

Among those shot were a druggist and his wife, a shoe repair man, a barber and a young bride.

Detective Thompson said the shooting in this industrial city in southern New Jersey across the Delaware River from Philadelphia began at 9:20 a.m., E.D.T.

At that time, the detective said, Unruh, dressed in a light suit and white shirt with bow tie, ran out of a rooming house where he was living.

He swung his gun into action and fired at passers-by on the street.

Then he ran into the drugstore of Morris Cohen, 40, on the first floor of the rooming house.

Cohen's wife shrieked: "It's a maniac! He's got a gun!"

She dashed upstairs, where her son Charles, 12, was in a bedroom. She locked the boy in a closet and hurried downstairs.

A bullet cut her down on the stairway. She died in her tracks.

Cohen, trying to get away, ran through a back door. He was shot as he ran and fell over dead in a gutter.

Cohen's mother, Mrs. Minnie Cohen, came down the stairs at that moment. Unruh turned and wounded her.

The mad gunman then ran from the drugstore and into the barber shop of Clark Hoover.

He shot and killed Hoover.

Then he shot and killed Mrs. Hoover.

Then he ran into a shoe repair shop and killed the proprietor.

From there Unruh dashed into a dry cleaning establishment and killed the proprietor there. At the same address he found a young bride and shot her.

Then, Thompson said, Unruh ran to his own room, where he had what Thompson described as an "arsenal of knives, clubs and ammunition."

He barred the door and took shots out the window at passers-by in the street. He felled several of them.

Among those shot down in the street was six-year-old Morris

Smith and an unidentified boy of five.

Both died later in a Camden hospital.

Also killed by out-the-window shots were James J. Hutton, 45, of nearby Westmont, N.J., and Alvin M. Day of Mantua, N.J.

The battle lasted less than 45 seconds. It was 10:15 a.m., E.D.T., when Unruh was captured.

The dead and wounded were taken to Cooper Hospital and all available doctors and nurses were pressed into service as the litters were brought in.

At 6 a.m., E.D.T., the Miami weather bureau placed the hurricane centre about 390 miles south-southwest of Bermuda.

The storm's forward movement was extremely slow, estimated at four or five miles an hour. But the whirling storm was picking up both power and size in its unhurried march over the Atlantic.

Big Trade Union Vote Swamps British Reds

BRIDLINGTON, Yorkshire, Eng. (CP)—Communists got a rough ride today at the British Trades Union Congress conference.

By a proxy vote of 6,746,000 to 760,000, delegates adopted a report from the general council disapproving Communist activities in affiliated unions.

Stormy scenes marked the debate on Communism. Scattered heckling from minority delegates reach an uproar when bluff Sir William Lawther, president of the T.U.C., intervened from the platform to say:

"I wish some of the delegates instead of talking a lot of bunk would come to the rostrum and explain how it is that while they are talking unity in our movement they are attacking unity on the political side."

Several delegates shouted disapproval.

Sir William bellowed back: "You shut up."

A Communist speaker who referred to what he called "the magnificent struggle for trade unionism" made during the London dock strike, was drowned out by boos.

NEW ORGANIZATION

Delegates earlier had given T.U.C. leaders a mandate to build up a new world organization to fight the Communist-led World Federation of Trade Unions.

Arthur Deakin, general secretary of the powerful Transport and General Workers' Union, said the Communists deliberately sought to create chaos and confusion. "We started in the W.F.T.U. with honest intentions, but we were not dealing with honest men," he said. There was a fruitful field of work for a new trade union international.

Tito Declares Pressure By Cominform Has Failed

NEW YORK (CP)—The New York Times today quoted Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia as saying Cominform economic pressure against his country had failed.

C. L. Sulzberger, chief European correspondent of the newspaper, said the Yugoslav leader told him in an interview the economic blockade of his country by Russia and her satellites no longer represented a threat.

The marshal, the Times said, appeared certain no war threatened the world and said: "I would like to point out there is no reason for people abroad to be upset or alarmed if we ourselves are not."

HAVE MORE FOOD

Tito, said the Times, expressed confidence that the country's five-year economic plan would be completed on schedule in 1951 and predicted this year's excellent harvest would further improve the country's food position.

Sulzberger said Tito received him in a comfortable suburban villa guarded by no more men than usually surround President Truman in peacetime. The conversation was conducted in Serbo-Croatian through an interpreter.

Odom was flying an F-51 Mustang owned by aviatrix Jacqueline Cochran.

The Thompson, a free-for-all, is the traditional classic of air races in the United States.

The Labor Day tragedy brought an emergency meeting of the Berea Progressive Citizens' League to draft a protest to state, county and nearby city officials.

The Thompson race has been a debated issue inside the daring fraternity of pilots since its revival because of the costs involved in flying the heavy surplus warplanes and the problems of flying them at high speeds around pylons.

South Africa Draws Color Line Tighter

JOHANNESBURG (Reuter)—South Africa's Nationalist Prime Minister, Dr. Daniel Malan, announced today that "to protect the European race" every citizen in the country would have to carry an identity card classifying him as European, "native," colored or Indian.

He told the Transvaal Congress of the Nationalist Party his party was determined to enforce his policy of apartheid (racial segregation).

The government also planned at least to create machinery during the next session of Parliament to make it possible to enforce apartheid in living areas, he said.

Since the government had abolished the representation of Indians in Parliament, it now was resolved to abolish the direct vote of colored people in Cape Province, Malan added.

Dr. Malan said the government was determined to stop non-European students mingling with European boys and girls at Witwatersrand and Capetown Universities where they enjoyed equality.

$2,000,000 Counterfeit Reaches B.C.

Bank personnel of Greater Victoria today were alerted to watch for $10 counterfeit bills which it is feared may be reaching this area in an attempt by eastern Canadian criminals to flood B.C. with an estimated $2,000,000 in the bogus money.

Following reports that two men had been arrested in Vancouver and more than $2,500 in counterfeit bills recovered, bank managers here immediately warned tellers to be on the lookout for false money.

The bills are reported to have the words "Will Pay to Bearer" almost illegibly printed, with no green watermark. They may have duplicate serial numbers, in some cases out of line. The picture of the King is slightly larger than on a good bill and the paper used is heavier and not as smooth as legitimate tender. The large "10" on the left of the picture is reported to be blurred.

Police Recover $2,500

Majority of the $2,500 in bogus money seized by police in Vancouver was recovered at the Pacific National Exhibition and at the exhibition race track.

In Victoria, chief of detectives Harry Mercer, while reporting there were as yet no indications the counterfeit bills had reached this city, warned citizens and merchants in particular to be on the look-out for the fake bills.

The R.C.M.P. said they had received a tip that a quantity of the phony bills was being flown to B.C. from eastern Canada.

In Toronto, one man was arrested and three others were picked up in Niagara Falls, Ont., with counterfeit money in their possession. Also recovered were 60 different stamps used for marking the money with serial numbers.

Latest count in Vancouver showed $239 in $10 bills was returned to concessionaires by the banks; $100 among P.N.E. receipts; $500 among race track receipts; $600 passed in Chinatown and it is reported "hundreds" of bogus bills were taken in by the Bank of Montreal at the exhibition.

As soon as the alarm went out, stand operators at the P.N.E. refused to accept $10 bills. Four bogus bills were found among circus receipts.

Police said one of the two men held tried to pass a phony bank note at a lunch stand and fled when questioned. He was stopped outside and search showed he had $300 in bogus bills and $170 in legitimate money.

U.S. Holiday Mishap Toll Over 500; New Record

The United States today grimly counted a record-breaking accidental death toll for the three-day Labor Day holiday.

The full count of fatalities was not yet tabulated but the more than 500 persons who lost their lives in accidents over the extended holiday was the largest any Labor Day week-end in history.

The highways took the heaviest toll. Of the 505 persons killed in violent accidents, 379 lost their lives in automobile mishaps. The traffic toll was nearly 100 above the estimated 280 probable death toll made by the National Safety Council.

Forty-five persons drowned and 81 died in accidents of miscellaneous causes.

The fatalities in an Associated Press survey covered the period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Monday.

This year's Labor Day total compared with the previous high of 428 over the 1937 Labor Day holiday week-end followed the all-time high in accidental deaths over the 1949 fourth of July when 711 persons died violently. The all-time mark is the 761 fatalities over the four-day Christmas period in 1936.

Some 30,000,000 automobiles crowded the nation's highways, the Safety Council estimated.

Britain, U.S. May Supply Tito With Needed Goods

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (UP)—Reliable reports indicated today that Britain and the United States may provide Marshal Tito with some of the supplies denied him by Russia.

The supplies, mostly heavy equipment, are expected to be provided through $60,000,000 in direct loans, $25,000,000 from the U.S. Export-Import Bank and $35,000,000 in British credits.

Hunters Given Advance Warning Of Fire Danger

B.C. Forest Service forest protection officials today gave British Columbia hunters advance warning that they will have to show extra care in the woods during the hunting season unless the forest fire hazard improves.

The hunting season is scheduled to open Saturday.

Forest service officials said that the hazard in most of the province was low to moderate, but the woods were dry, particularly during the daytime.

The present warm weather is expected to continue for at least 48 hours.

Unless there is a change in the weather before the opening of the hunting season, hunters should take special care with fire, officials of the forest service said.

One Woman's Day

By NANCY HODGES

WORTHWHILE WEED

MORE than once when Nature has insisted on pitting herself against my puny gardening efforts by making five dozen weeds grow where only one poor, palpitating blade of grass grew for me, I have wondered what weeds were sent to try us for.

And have cogitated as to what good they were—outside, of course, of the stinging-nettle-and-dandelion concoction that was alleged to have rejuvenating effects on an old gaffer in an English village.

So I was more than ordinarily interested to learn there is one weed that promises to be the answer to the prayer of millions of sufferers from one of the most painful diseases known to man—rheumatoid arthritis.

AFRICAN PLANT

TRUE, it isn't one of the weeds that you and I find in such profusion in our gardens, but it's a weed, nevertheless. It is a vine found in equatorial Africa, known to botanists by the jaw-breaking name of Strophantus.

Here, let me interject, the plant is of no relation to Halli Tosis, I understand, although it belongs to the family tree of Strophantus, which is used by certain African tribes for making arrow poison for use against those whose heads they probably tell.

Now scientists have discovered that the seed of the strophantus contains a substance which promises to be an effective substitute for the much-heralded cortisone.

CURATIVE CORTISONE

IT WAS in April last that two scientists at the Mayo Clinic at Rochester, Minn., announced the discovery of cortisone and its remarkable effects in completely reversing the crippling and other symptoms of arthritis.

Men and women, crippled for years, were able to run, walk and even dance shortly after injections of it. But, as in the early stages of penicillin and insulin, the scarcity of the product made it so very expensive as to put it away out of the reach of all but the few patients on whom the experiments were tried at Mayo's.

For it is produced from ox bile by a lengthy process of complicated steps—37 in all—which so reduces the final yield that it takes 40 head of slaughtered cattle to provide the daily dose of one patient.

HIGHLY CONCENTRATED

HOWEVER, according to the New York Times, one ton of the strophantus seed would yield as much cortisone as 12,500 tons of beef animals. And it is estimated that it would require one ton of seed to provide the yearly cortisone needs of one arthritic patient—for, as with insulin and diabetes, the effects of the new drug are dependent upon systematic regulation.

Needless to say, the discovery is hailed as one of the greatest in the history of medicine. And the U.S. government is sending an expedition to Africa to obtain seeds of the vine with a view to its large-scale cultivation on this continent.

WILL TAKE TIME

AS THE PLANTS take about five years to bear seeds, it will be realized that there is no immediate prospect of a sufficiency of the weed-produced cortisone to meet the needs of the millions of sufferers from the rheumatoid diseases.

But anyone who has been associated with arthritis and knows the hopelessness of their outlook in the past, the agony of limbs twisted and deformed by the No. 1 Crippler, will realize what seeds of hope will be sown in their souls by this latest discovery.

May those seeds have as bountiful a harvest as I, for one, hope the strophantus weed will reap in its new environment.

Dr. Wm. D. Higgs, Victoria Surgeon, Dies At His Home

Dr. William Darby Higgs, Victoria physician and surgeon, passed away suddenly at his home, 3392 Connorton Lane, early this morning. He was 47 years of age.

Dr. Higgs had practiced in Victoria for the past eight years, coming here from Port Alberni.

He won medical fame for himself in the up-island centre where he performed a delicate heart operation on a logger whom other doctors said could not be saved. A stick had gone through the logger's chest, piercing his heart.

Dr. Higgs cut open the chest, removed the stick, sewed up the heart and the man lived. Medical journals heralded the feat as a miracle operation.

Dr. Higgs was born in Calgary, Alta.

He is survived by his wife, Honora, at home; his mother, Mrs. F. F. Higgs, 954 Arundel Drive; four sisters, Mrs. A. H. Steed, Vancouver; Mrs. R. M. Jones, Port Alberni; Miss Mary D. Higgs, San Francisco; and Madame A. Gruenris, Paris, France; also one brother, Burt C. Higgs, Vancouver.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Hayward's B.C. Funeral Company.

Power Commission Calls Tenders

The B.C. Power Commission today called tenders for the construction of its new administration headquarters building to be located on the triangular block bounded by Burdett, Blanshard and McClure Streets here.

The new building will be three stories high of reinforced concrete construction with a total floor area of 34,000 square feet. The main entrance opening into the middle floor will front toward the corner of Burdett and Blanshard Streets.

The commission did not disclose its estimates of the cost of the building. Tenders will close at noon Sept. 30.

The main floor will house the offices of the commissioners, secretary to the commission, general offices and board room. The top floor will house the accounting, legal and operations departments.

The building is so designed that a fourth floor may be added if necessary.

Tenders are being asked to bid on the construction both with and without an automatic elevator.

The plans have been drawn by H. G. Whittaker, formerly chief provincial government architect.

The commission, since its formation in April, 1945, has been housed in the second story B.C. Land and Investment agency Ltd. building at 918 Government Street. Some of its departments have been housed in two other downtown buildings.

Lord Provost Of Edinburgh Sends Greetings To City

The Lord Provost of Edinburgh, H. A. Murray, wrote Mayor Percy George today that western Canadian air cadets who visited Scotland in July were grand examples of Canadian youth.

David Routley, Victoria cadet in the party, took the Lord Provost a message of greetings from Mayor George, and Edinburgh's chief magistrate replied:

"The kindness of the people of Canada has at all times been overwhelming and we have daily evidence of their generosity of heart in the many parcels which are mailed for distribution among our aged people.

"Our country is going through difficult times but in Scotland we are stout of heart and we face the 'steep braid' to recovery with confident hearts.

"We are encouraged by the many messages of goodwill which we receive at this festival time (annual Edinburgh festival) from all parts of the world, and particularly from our kinsmen overseas.

"I will be glad if you will convey to your citizens the reciprocal greetings of the capital city of Scotland."

In sending congratulations on "the admirable appearance" of the Canadian air cadets who visited Edinburgh, the Lord Provost stated:

"There are great days ahead of the British Commonwealth of Nations when such as he step forward to assume the responsibilities and to lead his country and ours to greater glory and achievement."

A brother of Lord Provost Murray, D. M. A. Murray, resides in Victoria. He is manager of the furniture department of a local department store.

Shirley Quits Channel Swim Six Miles Short

IN THE ENGLISH CHANNEL (AP)—Shirley May France was six miles from the English shore today at 3.35 p.m. (7.35 a.m. P.D.T.) in her attempt to swim the English Channel.

The 17-year-old girl from Somerset, Mass., gave up at 4.05 p.m. (8.05 a.m. P.D.T.) when she was less than six miles from England. She had been in the icy water 10 1/2 hours.

She was estimated to have covered more than 30 miles of swimming. The Channel is only 19 miles from Cap Gris-Nez, France, where she started, to Dover, England—but tides force Channel swimmers to cover much more than that.

Shirley May was moaning when her coach, Harry Boudakian, pulled her from the water. She had pleaded with him for 20 minutes not to make her give up.

The girl struggled against Boudakian when he leaned over the side of the rowboat to pull her in.

She was hysterical and kept crying: "Look how near it is." She had been within sight of the white cliffs of Dover for more than two hours.

"Leave me! Leave me!" she cried.

Men swimmers from an accompanying launch jumped into the water and held her against the side of a rowboat as she tried to get away.

Shirley May's father, J. Walter, France, was in tears, too.

"Never mind, baby, never mind," he said.

TIDE SHIFTED

He had tried to talk her into giving up several hours before, when the tide was running against her. A sudden shift in the tide's flow had boosted her chances then.

"We can come another year, sweetheart," the father said.

The end of her attempt came shortly after she had taken a cupful of hot broth.

Her coach asked her then if she wanted to quit. She shouted back, "No."

Hurricane In Atlantic

MIAMI, Fla. (UP)—Bermuda prepared for a hurricane today as the season's third big storm droned toward the British island accompanied by winds of "120 miles per hour or higher."

At 6 a.m., E.D.T., the Miami weather bureau placed the hurricane centre about 390 miles south-southwest of Bermuda.

The storm's forward movement was extremely slow, estimated at four or five miles an hour. But the whirling storm was picking up both power and size in its unhurried march over the Atlantic.

Britain Wants To Spend Marshall Dollars Anywhere

WASHINGTON (CP)—Britain will ask permission to spend Marshall Plan dollars anywhere she likes—not just in the United States—as one way out of her financial crisis, officials said today.

Diplomatic authorities said Foran on his way here for three-power Foreign Ministers meeting in London, talks on Britain's economic plight — is convinced his country shortly will have to dip into her dwindling reserves for millions of dollars unless Marshall Plan policies are relaxed.

Bevin and Sir Stafford Cripps, Chancellor of the Exchequer, are due in New York tonight aboard the liner Mauretania for the British-American-Canadian financial conference opening tomorrow at the State Department.

Top diplomats of the three governments are reported pessimistic about finding an immediate formula for solving Britain's long-range problem.

Finance Minister Abbott of Canada, who arrived Monday night with Hon. L. B. Pearson, External Affairs Minister, and other Canadian government officials, told reporters he hopes "we will be able to achieve some useful work," but he added: "One should not expect miracles."

Jap Admiral Acquitted

TOKYO (AP)—Admiral Soemu Toyoda, Japan's naval chief at the end of the war, today was acquitted of war-crimes charges by an Allied military tribunal. The tribunal held the prosecution had failed to prove guilt during more than six months of trial.

Triple Tragedy Mars Air Race Meeting At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—The National Air Races ended Monday in flaming death for distance flier Bill Odom during a wild dash won by Cook Cleland at a record 397 miles an hour.

It was Cleland's second victory and second record in the Thompson Trophy, $40,000 premier event of closed-course competition.

He won a total of $19,100, including lap prizes.

Odom's plane crashed into a house along the 15-mile course, killing Mrs. Jeannie Laird, 24, and her infant son, Craig.

Save for the tragedy back of the stands and out of sight of the 72,000 spectators, the close of the three-day program was a glory-filled afternoon. Pilots smashed speed marks with every drop of the checkered flag.

BUILT AT OSHKOSH

Bill Brennand of Oshkosh, Wis., set a midget-plane mark in the Goodyear Trophy race with 177.3 miles an hour. He won $7,000 prize money in Buster, a plane built by his boss, Steve Wittman of Oshkosh.

The old Goodyear mark of 169 was set a year ago by H. R. Salmon of Van Nuys, Calif., who finished fifth Monday.

The next mark to fall was in the Allison Jet Trophy dash from Indianapolis, Ind., when Lieut. Walter C. Riew of San Bernardino, Calif., flashed over the 259-mile course at 594.3 miles an hour. The old mark was 495, set in 1947.

Then a pair of U.S. Air Force fighters—North American F-86 Sabres—flew the fastest closed-course event in history. Capt. Bruce Cunningham of Hammond, Ind., came in first with an average speed of 586.1 miles an hour.

Race officials said it probably will not be recognized because Cunningham cut a pylon in straightening out his plane as portions of his tail surface tore off. He finished the race and then made an emergency landing.

The Thompson race was more than a parade than any in four years. Only once did the leader change. Ben McKillen, who works for Cleland at his Willoughby, O., airport, got off ahead and stayed there for a lap before Cleland pushed his big white racer in front as they passed the grandstand.

Two laps later, Ron Puckett of Lansdowne, Pa., overtook McKillen and that was the position for the rest of the 15-lap 225-mile race.

The one-two-three finishers all flew giant U.S. navy fighters of a type produced too late to get in the war.

The plane is the F-2G Corsair.

Port Alberni In Festive Mood For Three-Day Celebration

(Special to the Times)
PORT ALBERNI—Thousands attending Port Alberni's Paul Bunyan Labor Day sports say the annual program is becoming one of the outstanding entertainments offered the public on Vancouver Island.

The week-end program, which reached a climax Monday, included an air show, western Canadian champion trap shoot, open Tyee salmon derby, fire fighting displays and contests.

There were many visitors from the United States, Canadian mainland and southern Vancouver Island points present for the festivities.

Port Alberni was at its gayest. The American destroyer Robert Keller was in port for the occasion. A party of U.S. air men was on hand as well as crewmen off the ship.

HEAVY ENTRIES

Logging and millmen sports drew heavy entries from all island points, and one visitor taking a keen interest in the events was Wilbert Saxton, Australian lumberman visiting Canada.

Mrs. Roley Barret, outstanding Canadian woman stunt pilot, provided thrills for huge crowds at the Christie airport Sunday. Congested road to the airport was jammed bumper to bumper with cars.

A Canadian Army helicopter gave demonstrations of manoeuvrability. It took a run up the river and came back with a tyee salmon weighing 35 pounds.

Mayor Loran Jordan of Port Alberni went up for a ride during the demonstration.

SPECTACULAR CONTEST

A spectacular log burling contest opened the logging sports. A father and son battle in the finals found H. Baikie of Courtenay, emerging as the new champion. Ron Bowen of Ladysmith, champion for the last two years, presented the cup. A misunderstanding resulted in his arrival too late to qualify as an entrant. An estimated 3,000 people lined the fishermen's floats and the waterfront during these events.

Preceding the main attraction, a radio special event man made a descent in a diving suit with his observations and comments relayed to the crowd by commentator Cliff Lee on a public address system.

New champions emerged from the Port Alberni Gun Club annual shoot where 90 squads competed for top western Canadian honors. Excellent planning and management marked the event.

POPULAR QUEEN

Eileen Manning reigned as queen over the sports. She was chosen through a popularity poll. Maids of honor were Memory Stevens and Betty Burnett. The queen, escorted by the Somass Pipe Band, the Larla Drill Team and the Elk Band, led a three-mile parade from Alberni to Port Alberni.

The fraternal and union floats led the display in importance and craftsmanship. The Scandinavian Society took first and St. Andrews and Caledonian Society was second. The Hotel Restaurant and other Employees took first in union floats.

In the logging contests high rigger Ron MacIvor won the tree-climbing events for the third time to clinch ownership of the Gayton Cup. E. Alexander of Coombs placed second.

Power-saw bucking open contest was won by G. Sundberg and George La Fleur of Nanaimo. G. Voigt and A. Jervis of Vancouver were second.

The small power-saw contest was won by the Nanaimo entry of H. Casper and W. McFadden. Brothers George and William Addison were second.

Long flight prize went to D. Currie and B. Laird of Ladysmith with F. and T. Kroplansky second.

A man and wife won the men's wood chopping and ladies' hand-bucking contests. They were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Norback of Lantzville.

R. Newman of Ladysmith was first in the men's bucking contest.

Tahsis Lumber Co. tug-of-war team was the heavy puller against Plywoods' Nighthawks.

BASEBALL GAMES

Victoria Eagles won three baseball games against Alberni's All-Star Juniors. The home team had won 14 straight games prior to the capital city team's visit.

In the open Tyee derby 75 fish were weighed in three days' fishing.

R. Mawhinney of Coombs took first prize with a 44½-pound spring. F. Beurling of Port Alberni placed a close second, catching two fish over 40 pounds. He lost by one ounce in the final.

Mayor Jordan presented the prizes in ceremonies Monday night. Mawhinney took $250 for top honors and $25 for the largest fish of the day.

Harlan Baikie and Billy spin the log in the finals of the burling contest.

Island volunteer fire departments received high compliments from the Port Alberni mayor at a banquet marking end of the 5th annual contest and convention of the V.I. Firemen's Association.

"The cost of regular fulltime firemen would exceed a total taxation for Port Alberni," Mayor Jordan said. "The fine, effective work of volunteer departments makes it possible for small municipalities to operate."

The Allen Cup for 10-man teams was won by Port Alberni.

Fire sirens called out the winning team from the banquet hall as the cup was being presented. Frank Harrison, veteran with continued service since 1912, received the cup in the absence of the winning team.

Ladysmith placed second in this event. Ladysmith also took first honors and Port Alberni was second in coupling 2½-in. hose.

Target contest was won by Ladysmith with Nanaimo second.

Industrial contest was won by Alberni Bloedel, Stewart and Welch pulp mill with the Great Central Lake team of the same company placing third. A Ladysmith team took second place. Chemainus won the inch-and-a-half coupling contest; Parksview was second and Ladysmith third.

All events were closely contested and won only by seconds.

USING THEIR BRAINS

CANADIAN NEWSPAPERS IN RECENT months have devoted considerable editorial comment to the position of graduates of this Dominion's universities and the employment they find when they have completed their studies. The situation is not nearly as bad as an old complaint would indicate. The best brains of the country are not being siphoned off to the United States, according to recent surveys.

The Edmonton Journal, for instance, notes that "of last spring's crop of graduates—the largest in Canadian history—93 per cent have now obtained steady jobs in Canada. This is a remarkable record. It was achieved mainly by making a thorough canvass of Canadian industry and business to find what job openings were available in the various professional categories, and then making sure that the graduates knew about them." This work, incidentally, was performed by the federal employment service's executive and professional division.

Of no less significance are the reasons why the young men and women who have passed through our higher institutions of learning are remaining in this country. There may be many, but one instance probably furnishes the answer: In an important Ottawa department a former Victoria student, who has still to write the thesis for his Ph.D., enjoys a position of some importance. Representations have been made by various agencies to acquire his services. A branch of the United Nations is one of them, and the pay would be higher. The Victorian's superiors have discouraged him from making the switch. They consider themselves short-staffed in experienced men in his line and would feel his loss. At the same time, the opportunity still exists for him to leave the country and take a more highly paid job. Why doesn't he do it? His reply runs like this: He is a young man with good chances of promotion in his department. If he left now for a more remunerative post in another country, he would not endear himself to the department when and if he later should want to come back to it. And he likes living in Canada.

The same, we venture to think, might be said for innumerable other degree men and women who realize that higher pay and quicker promotion are not necessarily the most important things in life.

FADING LIGHTS

IT IS AN ANOMALY THAT THE PROVINCE which is usually cited as Canada's most prosperous and civilized should be preparing to resume electric power restrictions on a wide scale, with further cuts threatened if rainfall in the next few months is not up to "normal." The Ontario Hydro-electric Power Commission has been lauded as one of the most efficient, supervisory bodies in the Dominion, and the system which it manages as one of the best in existence. Yet the rapid upsurge in the demand for electric power for Ontario industries apparently caught the administrators napping. For the past few years the province has felt increasingly the pressure on its facilities.

Dim-outs, power cut-offs and other expedients have been found necessary, despite public objections, and Ontario might well be said to be partially starving in the midst of plenty. Commencing on October 1, according to an announcement made last Friday, electric heating in homes will be restricted, and electric signs and store window lighting will be banned. There may be good reasons for this austerity in a land of almost unlimited water power resources, but it must take all an Ontario resident's patience to view the situation with equanimity and good will.

ITALIAN BOOT?

IN AN ENVIRONMENT WHERE LOUD and continued publicity is a foremost pursuit, it was inevitable that Greta Garbo—the lady who wanted to be alone—should have become an outstanding personality. Thousands who have never seen her undisputed talents as an actress have heard of her as a famous recluse, who inexplicably kept out of the public eye as much as possible. In a land of ballyhoo, that was an attribute which in itself attracted attention, contradicting the very purpose of her withdrawal.

There will be intense interest in some quarters, therefore, over the news that the size of Miss Garbo's foot has at last been revealed. Unflattering allusions to the length of her pedal extremities have long been grist for the movie columnists' mill, but no less an authority than a famous Italian shoemaker has now denied the columnists. Miss Garbo, he announces on the strength of a recent measurement, wears a size 7A shoe, and her foot is particularly "well proportioned." We are happy that this information has come at a time when world events threatened to engage our mind with other problems. It is sheer meanness in us to wonder whether the fact that Miss Garbo ordered 70 pairs of shoes from the Florentine craftsman had anything to do with the myth-destroying disclosure.

A CANADIAN PROJECT

THE MOVEMENT TO ESTABLISH A National Library of Canada, given impetus from time to time, has become much more of a reality since the close of the war. There is renewed hope, therefore, that the anomaly represented by the fact that several foreign countries have sizeable collections of Canadiana whereas the Dominion itself has no national repository for such material, may soon be removed. The brief recently submitted by the Canadian Library Association to the Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences, gave the general outline of the scope of such a project, and stressed the value that would accrue to the cultural life of the nation as a whole.

One of the first objections usually brought against the National Library proposal is that Canada's wide geographical distribution would mean that only those near the site of the library—Ottawa is suggested—would be able to benefit from it. That criticism is met to a large extent by plans to lend books and other material from the central collection to persons in any part of the Dominion through their local libraries; plus the provision, in the case of rare volumes, of copies, photographic reproductions and microfilm. The value of such an institution to the federal government need hardly be stressed, and as a focus of research work and studies of all kinds, it would provide a national centre whose lack today is increasingly felt.

Canadian experts in the field of library work have made a study of national collections in other countries, and have amassed considerable information which would be put to use in organizing a similar establishment in this Dominion. It is a fact that for some historical material on Canada students at present must go to the British Museum, the Library of Congress, and other sources. That is a mark against our claim to cultural nationhood. Although the expense would not be small, the advantages of a National Library of Canada would be such that the project should be given every public support and carried through to completion in the not too distant future.

AIDS TO SURVIVAL

IT IS A FAR CRY FROM THE DAYS when stricken victims died helplessly at sea or in the wilderness, to present times, when the facilities of science are employed to save lives under conditions previously considered impossible. The news columns have carried the dramatic story, for instance, of the police patient aboard a trans-Atlantic liner. A police expert and an iron lung were flown from New York to Halifax and then rushed by coast guard cutter to the ship at sea. Later, the doctor radioed for special drugs, which were flown to the vessel and dropped on its deck. Meanwhile radio messages had ensured that all preparations were made for the patient's reception ashore.

In deploring the many inventions and discoveries that have increased the mortality rate of mankind both in war and peace, let us not overlook the progress that has been made in humanitarian techniques. And longevity tables indicate that the latter are triumphing over the former.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

THERE IS SOMETHING VERY HUMAN about the propensity which many of us have to delight in large and impressive names and titles. Some of our fraternal societies indulge in this harmless affectation, and individuals frequently glory in lengthy nomenclature which they have chosen or had bestowed on them. It is, however, an equally human trait to wish to puncture the pomp and circumstance with which long names so frequently are surrounded, and it is a welcome occasion when we find that the possessor of such a "handle" has sufficient sense of humor to take a little joshing in good part.

Such a man must be that Indian political leader who bears the name of Sir Tiruvalliyangudi Vijayaraghavacharya. Passing through New York as delegate of his country to the Commonwealth relations conference in Toronto, he disclosed that in London the hotel employees call him "Sir 754" after his room number. Other names by which he is known to various friends were mentioned, but most revealing of all was the fact that his children know him as "Pop." That is 33 letters less than his full title, but we wager the shorter form of address gets quicker attention and more immediate results than the multisyllabic designation that he bears.

PASS THE SALT, PLEASE

THE NEWS COLUMNS HAVE TOLD OF a 36-year-old woman in Plymouth, Mass., who recommends abstinence from food as a sure means of becoming strong. To prove her point, the woman, who is the mother of three children, hefts several tons of ice daily in the course of her delivery work. We are told that she carries mere 80-pound chunks by her side. Anything up to 120 pounds she tosses to her shoulder. And her diet to sustain this activity consists of black coffee for breakfast and lunch, a lamb chop and a little green vegetable for dinner. Starches, sugar and milk are avoided like poison.

While there is much to be said in support of the thesis that many people eat too much, there are equally powerful arguments against starvation; and we fail to see how the lady in question—if the news report is correct—can maintain her health. She may indeed be doing what she claims on the diet that she specifies, but we doubt that she will do it for long. And if she goes to her final rest 20 years sooner than she normally should we believe that lack of adequate nourishment may have something to do with it.

Matter Of Fact

THE BALKAN WAR

ALTHOUGH the U.S. State Department and British Foreign Office have been handing out soothing syrup, the current Yugoslav crisis is being taken very seriously behind the scenes. In fact the American and British ambassadors in Moscow, Alan Kirk and Sir David Kelly, last week urged the two governments to address a joint note to Moscow, sternly warning of the dangers of war in the Balkans.

No note was sent, because the State Department and Foreign Office believe that such an indication of Anglo-American sympathy for Tito might make the Kremlin more eager to attack the heretic. But this does not mean that the American and British experts believe there is no likelihood of armed Soviet aggression against Yugoslavia. On the contrary, there is a whole series of reasons why Generalissimo Stalin may think this is the right time for an enterprise that must be very dear to his heart.

FIRST, the heresy of Tito is increasingly affecting the whole structure of Soviet world power. No totalitarian religion can tolerate heresy. And the Tito heresy is not only proving dangerously attractive to the Czechs, Poles, Hungarians and other satellites. The economic blockade of Yugoslavia, with which the heresy was to be punished, is also disrupting the economy of the satellite area. Czechoslovakia and Poland particularly are feeling the loss of Yugoslav copper, lead, zinc and bauxite, which they do not get any more because they will not send their manufactured products to Belgrade.

SECOND, Tito has closed the Greek border, and has thus brought near to collapse the Soviet-sponsored rebellion in Greece. And if this were not bad enough, Tito is also threatening to move in on the Kremlin's isolated, enfeebled puppet, Enver Hoxha, in Albania. If the loss of Albania were added to failure in Greece, the damage to Soviet prestige in Eastern Europe would be very grave.

Third, western aid to Tito is continually increasing. The World Bank will shortly give Yugoslavia a $20 million loan; and there may be more to come from other sources. On the other hand, this assistance for Tito has had no material results, as yet. At the same time, the rearmament of Western Europe is still only a pipe dream. The Red Army has already placed five armored divisions on the Yugoslav border and can quadruple the number tomorrow. In short, if Yugoslavia is to be invaded by the Soviets, this is the best opportunity.

HITHERTO, the Kremlin's menaces against Tito have not been regarded as portending war, mainly because the western experts have supposed the Kremlin did not wish to run such risks. The theory has been that the Soviet notes were intended to shake Tito's nerves; and that at worst guerrilla forces would be sent across the Yugoslav frontiers to stir up trouble. This caused no special concern, since Tito's ruthlessly efficient secret police, the OZNA, has already shown itself quite capable of handling any police problem, however large. The recent blowing up of the big oil refinery at Flume, though a very serious matter, was the first and only solid success of the Kremlin's Yugoslav agents up to this time.

WAR is still considered improbable; but the definite possibility is now being weighed by the American and British experts, for two very simple reasons. The first, and most obvious reason is the seriousness of the military manoeuvring on the Yugoslav borders. The second, and perhaps more convincing, reason is the turn that the war of nerves against Tito has now taken. The Soviet notes to Belgrade have become so shrill and violent that it is hard to see how the Kremlin can avoid following up its words with action.

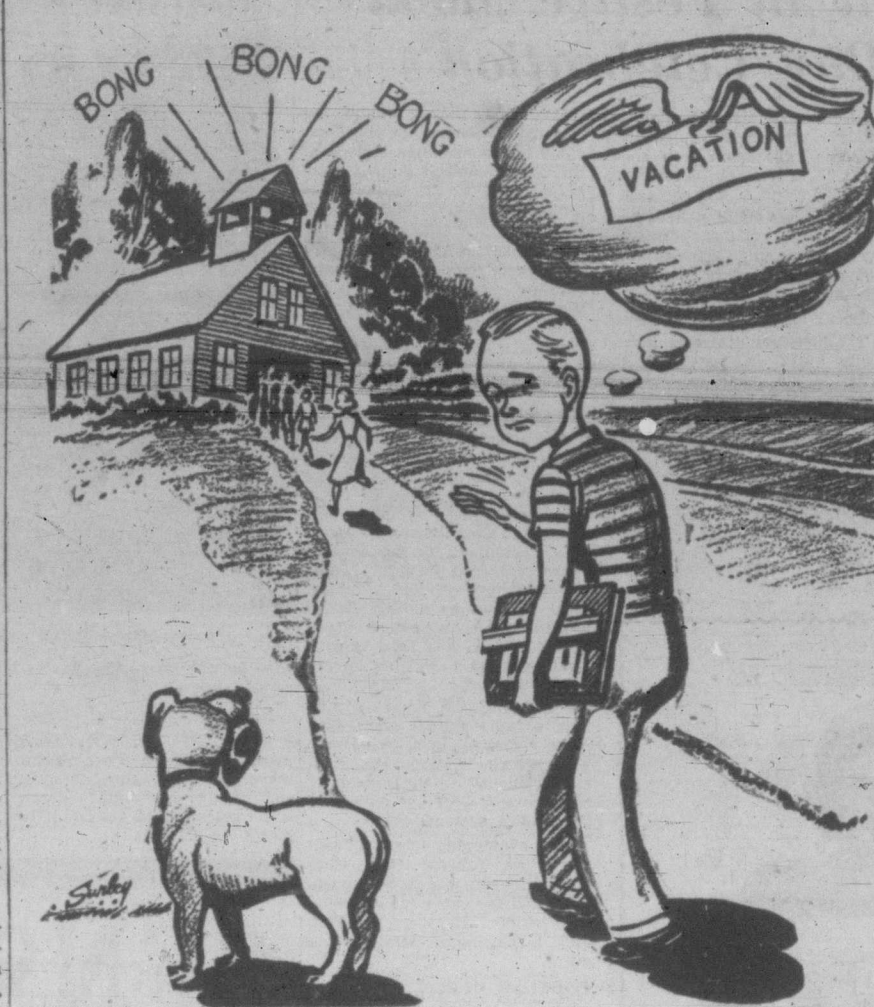

Whatever happens, Tito is expected to stand firm. Indeed, it is already quite possible that he will make the boldest possible gesture, arraigning the Soviet Union before the United Nations Security Council as a "threat to peace." He has already ordered Yugoslav Ambassador Joza Vilfan to attend the Security Council meeting in New York. And there are reports that Vilfan may be joined there by Tito's top diplomatic team, Foreign Secretary Edvard Kardelj and Under Secretary Ales Bebler.

IF WAR comes, Tito has 30 tough divisions. Their equipment problem is serious, since they adopted Soviet models in the period when Tito was Stalin's loyal Balkan viceroy. But Tito's troops are considered to be wholly loyal, and capable of putting up the most powerful guerrilla-style resistance.

All these facts should only underline the need for a firm American policy in this crisis. About the only hope of an eventual settlement with the Soviet Union lies in the possibility that Russia will have to relax her grip on the satellite area. If Tito is permitted to be gobbled up with no protest by us, this hope will be gone. Political and strategic crises make strange allies, but the rule is that if you want to survive yourself, it is wise to stand by your allies when the pinch comes.

The two world conflicts which have occurred in the past 35 years have made it unmistakably clear that an aggression on any of the free nations of the Atlantic community involved all of those nations. This is an inescapable fact—George C. Marshall, former U.S. Secretary of State, on the Atlantic Treaty.

The Road Back

This Is Every Citizen's Business

May I, through your columns, appeal to the citizens of Victoria?

As the Community Chest Campaign nears and the need for canvassers becomes even greater I ask for consideration of what this appeal means to Victoria: It is a community effort for this community. Twenty-six members make up the board, which meets every month and keeps close contact with each and every agency. A budget committee goes into every detail of all accounts, and no agency is admitted unless the board feels it is justified to receive assistance. It was, and still is, the intention of this board that through an annual appeal, campaign expenses which naturally accrue should be minimized, and that the one donation should provide sufficient funds for the twenty agencies. When one gives one dollar, that is only five cents per agency to carry out its work for the year. It is hard to understand how Victorians, who are always public-spirited, allowed our contribution last year to be the lowest in Canada. Through better understanding of the wonderful work being accomplished by each agency, the campaign committee has every hope that Victorians will respond more generously this year. Many blame the Chest for the continued tag days—over which it has no control, and this should be understood by the public—also that none of the 20 agencies have held a tag day since the inception of the Chest in 1937. Canvassers give their time freely as well as their contributions, and the response of the public is urgently required. We need hundreds of canvassers. Anyone willing to offer assistance, please telephone me, Garden 5149, or Campaign Headquarters, Prince Robert House, Beacon 4206.

As Our Readers See It

THE SAFETY PLEDGE

Pity the police! Think of the number of horses, under the hood they must be responsible for and control every 24 hours. Yet it's their job. Think of the number of cowboys it would take to control and ride herd on such a multitude of horses. For our sakes, our safety, our homes, our schools, our everything.

Yet traffic fatalities take place. Not because of the men in blue but because of us, the public. It's we who do the actual driving, maybe too fast, without sufficient care, possibly a drink too many, but we do the driving. And walking!

ALAN LESLIE GREIG,

ONE VIEW

Hospitalization rates for next year in the province of Saskatchewan have just been declared as follows: $10 for all persons over 18 and $5 for children under a maximum rate of $30. Age for single persons subject to the levy has, indeed, been lowered from 21 to 18, but where in B.C. it starts at 16 for girls and boys at work!

Premier Johnson has asserted that B.C. benefits are more generous than elsewhere (which probably means Saskatchewan). But as only bare hospitalization in a public ward is offered in B.C. and that in over-crowded, under-staffed hospitals which certainly do not hesitate to speed patients on their way as soon as they are at all able to go, we are hardly convinced.

Cases have occurred where elderly persons have suffered a stroke or other non-operable illness. Having been told by their doctors that the hospitals are all full and being sent to private nursing homes for which no allowance is payable by the B.C. Hospital scheme, the heavy cost is borne by these elderly people who are often in no good position to incur it.

WHAT IS A DOLLAR?

The following paragraphs appeared in column two on page three of the Victoria Daily Times for Wednesday, August 31, 1949: "A Canadian workingman in 1949 works half as many hours, a week as his grandfather and receives, in terms of purchasing power, five times his grandfather's wages."

A dollar saved 50 years ago has now about one-fifth the buying power it had then; and not five times as much, as was suggested in the Times.

Item From The Records

By JOSEPH LISTER RUTLEDGE

THERE is a small item reported in the Financial Times of London, England, having to do with the price of base metals. It will probably escape the attention of all but those directly interested. Actually it should be of wider interest because, involved in it, is the success of policies fundamental in Britain's struggle for survival.

REDUCED PRICE

On July 12, the item notes, the United Kingdom Ministry of Supply suddenly reduced the price of base metals to conform with American prices. A short time later, and as suddenly, they had to increase the price.

As the Ministry has taken the place of the Metal Exchange as distributing agent, it found itself in a bit of a jam. It had sold at lower prices and had to purchase at higher, thus involving a substantial inventory loss. That made the Ministry timid. But it did not make it recognize that government bureaus which meddle in business deals they do not rightly understand are likely to get their fingers nipped.

Business would have accepted this lesson and sought to learn from it. The bureaucrats only recognized that, in setting a price on copper, lead and zinc, they had lost a tidy sum of the taxpayer's money, because the market had run away from them.

They did not learn, except to protect themselves at the cost of everyone else, and the defeat of the larger projects of recovery.

AGAINST LOSS

This is the way of it. The users of base metals must purchase through the government, and the bureaucrats, to protect themselves, not only demand the going price but an additional item as insurance against similar losses. The result is that the buyer cannot know the costs of the commodities he purchases.

So we have the curious spectacle of a government pleading with manufacturers to expand their production for export; pleading further that they keep margins to the barest limit in order to be able to compete favorably; and, in another voice, blandly explaining that the producer may be asked to pay a premium on goods already priced and shipped. So the dead hand of bureaucracy clutches at the life of a struggling and already handicapped industry.

The rather general attitude toward this situation is that it is the boss who is getting it in the neck.

WHY WORRY?

Why should we worry? What is currently happening in Britain—the crucial and near tragic lack of dollars—may indeed cause the bosses to suffer. But for every 10 bosses there are probably a thousand wage earners representing many more dependants. It is their country also that is trembling on the verge of bankruptcy. That's what makes this small item important.

GLOBAL SURVEY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press News Analyst

General Douglas MacArthur's renewed call for negotiation of a peace treaty with Japan is couched in such laudatory terms regarding that defeated country's progress as to demand careful consideration by the allied powers.

Divergence of views among the allies thus far have precluded a settlement.

MacArthur first advocated a peace treaty more than two years ago, but the far eastern big four (Britain, the United States, Russia and China) couldn't agree on the method of procedure.

Russia wanted a treaty drafted by the four powers. Britain and the United States thought it should be done by the far eastern commission comprising the 11 countries which fought against Japan—the United States, Canada, Russia, Britain, France, China, the Philippines, the Netherlands, Australia, India and New Zealand. China offered an unsuccessful compromise that the far-eastern commission draft the treaty but that decisions be subject to the unanimity of the big four.

Since then the situation has become immeasurably complicated by the success of the Chinese Communist against Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's Nationalist government. Should the Chinese Reds establish a stable regime it would split the far eastern big four into two equal camps—Russia and Communist China on one side and the Anglo-American pair on the other.

SHOWDOWN NEAR

Despite the difficulties, however, the time is rapidly approaching when action will have to be taken. MacArthur says the "threat of Communism as a major issue in Japanese life is past . . . the basic causes of social unrest throughout Asia have largely been eradicated by a re-design of the social structure to permit equalization of individual opportunity and personal privilege." The budget has been balanced.

MacArthur didn't indicate his idea of what the peace treaty should provide. One would expect it would contain full safeguards against further aggression and these would include continued military occupation over a long period.

It should come as no surprise to anyone to learn that jet fighter planes are now in mass production in the Soviet Union. This peace-loving and most lovable state has never demobilized its army since the war in Europe ended in 1945; and (for purely peaceful purposes, of course) it has steadily devoted a larger proportion of its national income to war production than any other state in the world.

If, by this time, Russia had not got jet planes into mass production, a Commissar or two should be sent to the salt mines.

Fiddle fish are not—the name rather suggests, sharks in a small way of business. They are called fiddle fish for the unexciting reason that they are shaped like fiddles—though the fish themselves might feel strongly that on grounds of seniority it is really fiddles that look like them and not the other way round. The main point about them is that they bring, or anyhow are believed to bring, good luck to their captors, and the other day the first specimens to be caught for ten years were brought into Fleetwood by the trawler Jamaica. In accordance with current custom they were slung over her stern, and she will continue to tow them about behind her until there is nothing left of them. They are not, it seems, edible.

To be inedible in this country nowadays confers a certain distinction on a fish, and the fiddle fish, trailing through the sea behind the Jamaica as auspiciously as an old shoe behind the nuptial limousine, is entitled to feel proud of its singularity. Other fish may be more famous, taste less horrible, but man's esteem for them is based on sordid and material considerations. The fiddle fish is honored for itself alone.

Federal Labor Minister Urges Co-Operation By All

TORONTO — Co-operation among all classes for maintenance of the prosperity and improvement of the standard of living in Canada was the chief theme of Minister of Labor Mitchell's address at the Labor Day luncheon of the Canadian National Exhibition here.

Thanking the directors for having invited him to be their guest Monday, he said:

"I like to think of the Canadian National Exhibition and of similar expositions held in other centres as illustrative of the co-operation which has existed between the various elements of our national community and which contribute to such outstanding and successful events. Not the least in the fields of co-operation which I have in mind is that between labour and management."

"When we entered the Second World War in 1939 both partners in industry had so improved their standards that Canada was in a position to make a great contribution in opposing the dictators who threatened our very existence. Labor contributed in a magnificent way to the winning of that war. Young men left their jobs to put on uniforms, fight and some to die. Management heard the call and there was an amazing and almost overnight expansion of existing industrial plants and opening of new plants across the country to supply the sinews of war. We began to make things we never knew we could make before."

"We realized that we had to pull together to survive. Could there be a better example of what can be done by co-operation or a more effective answer to those who take a satanic delight in advocating discord?"

YEARS OF TRANSITION

"The experience during the years of war has been much the same during the years of transition since 1945. Instead of suddenly slowing up our industrial and agricultural advance because the impulse of war had ended, we continued to push ahead. True enough, we did, to a degree, lapse back to the struggling for preferred position between labor and management and, while losses were suffered on both sides and grave fears for the economic future of Canada were felt, we still moved on."

"There is now, I believe, a better feeling between labor and management. More noticeable is a fuller understanding of the rights of each side, of the responsibilities which each has to meet, of the biggest fact of all—that we are all Canadians and all anxious that Canada should prosper."

Mr. Mitchell said that when he became Minister of Labor at Ottawa nearly eight years ago, since he had come from the ranks of organized labor, there were some of his old friends who thought he was to be a member of the federal government wholly concerned with advocating the interests of labor. That, of course, was not so. His task, as he saw it and had tried to do it, was to render service to the state by trying to bring about a fair balance of interest as between labor and management and thus contributing to industrial peace.

CAUSES OF GROWTH

"The rapid growth of trade unionism," he went on, "has been significant of the changing times. Only 10 years ago, the year of the outbreak of the Second World War, there were but 359,000 members in the labor organization of Canada. In 1948 the total was 978,000 and I believe the figure is even higher now. The increase, of course, is due to three reasons—our industrial growth, the drive for union strength on the part of the workers, recognition by employers that responsible organized labor is here to stay."

The leaders and rank and file of labor, he said, had played their part in developing the social and economic life of Canada. They had served in various ways in federal, provincial and municipal fields, on important boards and commissions. It had been his privilege to increase this method of co-operation of government, management and labor.

"A small number of persons," he added, "have been using their trade union positions to advocate ideas that have nothing to do with true trade unionism. Responsible labor leaders are aware of the situation and it will not be long, I hope, before destructive elements have been completely cleaned out of the labor movement."

"All the unwise men are not on labor's side, however. I have met short-sighted, unrealistic men on the management side as well, men who have been responsible for unnecessary industrial strife. These are the people who warmly support their own organizations of employers but consider that trade unions are an unnecessary evil."

"However, on both sides these elements are in the minority. The majority can sit down together and iron out any difference if the will to do so is there."

EXPORT TRADE IMPORTANT

Canada's economy had been developed on a basis of one-third export trade and so, to keep prosperous, to hold their jobs, maintain their industries and businesses, Canadians must trade with other countries. They want Canada's food, timber, minerals, a great many of the things which under normal production in this country, there would be surpluses to sell.

"That is why stability in the rest of the world is so important to us," he said. "All we can hope is that the day will come when the final peace treaties will be signed and sealed and relations resumed which will see the oceans of the world again dotted with ships of commerce moving in all directions."

"Until then we have a big job to do in our country. First of all, we want to maintain the standard of living we have enjoyed in the past—to improve it as much as possible. We cannot do so unless we work and produce and work a little harder and more out of the national purse if less is put in. If we did so, then, in due course, there would be nothing left. Our constant aim should be to improve the lot of each citizen through steady jobs, good pay, adequate leisure, decent homes, opportunities for travel and enjoyment of the amenities of life available to us in a rich land such as Canada. They can be obtained if we work for them—and that is the only way."

9,000 Visitors At Saanich Fair Admire 2,000 Livestock, Agricultural Entries

The sleek, well-groomed horses pranced, wheeled and trotted, livestock appeared at their stolid best and the fruit and vegetables were something to behold when Saanich held its 81st annual fall fair exhibition Labor Day.

Record crowds joined the procession to Saanichton Agricultural Hall and grounds. They packed the newly-built seats around the horse show enclosure and filled the hall to capacity.

It was estimated nearly 9,000 visited the oldest, continuous fair west of the Great Lakes and really had an enjoyable time amid the hospitable surroundings and folks out Saanich way. The fair is sponsored by the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society.

About the only bored faces were those of the bovines—but they look that way out in the fields, any day of the week.

There were 2,000 entries in all, ranging from livestock to prize beans and including 100 entries in the horse show and 100 head of cattle.

Many exhibitors were out to win the coveted "Michell-Turgoose" Challenge Cup, presented by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Michell in commemoration of their parties who came to Saanich in the early sixties and were ardent workers in the Agricultural Society but the points have not yet been totaled.

The cup is awarded annually to the exhibitor obtaining the highest number of points covering all sections in the main hall.

ONE OF FINEST IN WEST

Arthur J. R. Ash, M.L.A.-Elect, opened the fair and told the crowds he felt that Saanich could become a Class B fair, the only one on the island. He noted the fair's long history and steady progress and said it was one of the finest in the west for its size.

"Exhibits here today of purebred cattle, horses, poultry, fruit, flowers and numerous other entries are truly worthwhile seeing and will give visitors some idea of what we in Saanich can do in the way of agricultural products," Mr. Ash said.

He praised the interest in the boys' and girls' work, particularly in the livestock classes and said their section should not be overlooked as the young people were the "coming citizens and farmers of tomorrow."

"I have often said the Saanich Peninsula can become one of the most varied producing areas of B.C., providing sufficient water can be supplied and I look to the future, when this dream comes true," Mr. Ash told the throng.

STARTED 81 YEARS AGO

The hundreds of visitors who enjoyed every minute of it learned that the annual fair had come a long way from that first effort 81 years ago, which was held in a barn.

Representative of the activities and skills of the residents of the district for eight decades the fair has become a family tradition with many. Willard W. Michell, president of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society is a grandson of one of the founders. Mrs. A. Doney, convenor of the women's section, is a descendant of the old pioneer Saanich family of Malcolm.

While winners of many of the challenge cups and trophies will not be known for another day or two, James Turner was named winner of the Dr. S. F. Tolmie Cup in the horse entries.

Winner in the vegetable section was W. G. Burch, who took top honors last year.

Mrs. H. E. Sheldrake of Esquimalt won the Mrs. W. D. Michell Challenge Trophy for jams and bottled fruits. Mrs. S. D. McHattie was another winner in the household arts section, while Mrs. W. Casey of Saanichton took top honors for her flower exhibits.

SADDLE HORSES OUTSTANDING

Saddle horse classes were outstanding and Col. R. Richmond did the judging. This fair saw the largest entry in purebred cattle in many years and competition proved keen.

Highlights of the day were the Highland piping and dancing events, with John MacDonald, chairman in charge. Results, however, have not yet been tabulated or challenge cup winners announced.

In the poultry section, Victor E. Virgin won a first for the best male in the show and B. Hoole and Son, a first for the best female. In the swine classes, Thomas E. Standing of Cobble Hill won firsts with his registered boar and registered sow.

Young Skippy Crawford won first prize for the boys' and girls' collection of vegetables and Reggie Kerr second. Taking a number of prizes for honey exhibits was D. H. Heyer of Victoria.

C. F. Moss was awarded the Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes Cup for most points in the fruit section and took top honors for collections of apples and pears.

In the apple pie section interest was high and competition keen with Mrs. T. P. Rolloway of Saanichton first; Mrs. D. S. McHattie of Royal Oak second, and Helen Brethour of Sidney third.

Among those attending the fair were Maj. Gen. G. R. Pearkes and Mrs. Pearkes, Mayor Percy George and Mrs. George and Reeve E. C. Warren and Mrs. Warren.

Two of the busiest people on fair day were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Stoddart, secretary and assistant-secretary of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society.

Judges for the fair were: James Woods, heavy horses; Col. R. Richmond, saddle horses; George W. Challenger, Jersey cattle; K. A. Hay, Holsteins and Ayrshires; J. L. Lang, poultry; P. F. Boucher and Miss P. M. Baker, rabbits; M. W. Randall, eggs; J. Boshier, flowers; Miss Geraldine Mann and Miss Nova Graham, jams and bottled fruits; C. E. Jeffery, honey; Miss I. M. Abbott, women's work; G. E. Fleming, photography; Miss Gwen Dewar, J. McBeth and Miss N. Small, Highland dancing; Ian Duncan and Miss Lillian Grant, piping; L. E. Taylor, fruit, and E. W. White, vegetables.

The many varieties of squash and pumpkins prove interesting to Katherine Goodland and Pat Johnston of Victoria.

CANADA NEEDS HEALTHY RAILWAYS TO SERVE HER PEOPLE

41 MILLION
—a lot of passengers

On good days and bad, for business or pleasure, some 41,000,000 passengers stepped aboard Canadian trains last year.

They travelled the fantastic total of almost four billion miles. That's over 300 miles each for every man, woman and child in Canada.

The gigantic task of carrying this multitude of commuters, vacationists, business people, requires an array of train crews, trackmen, dispatchers, locomotive engineers . . . and miles of coaches, dining cars, engines . . . and mountains of coal, forests of ties and telegraph poles . . . and 42,000 miles of track . . . altogether a capital investment of well over three billion dollars.

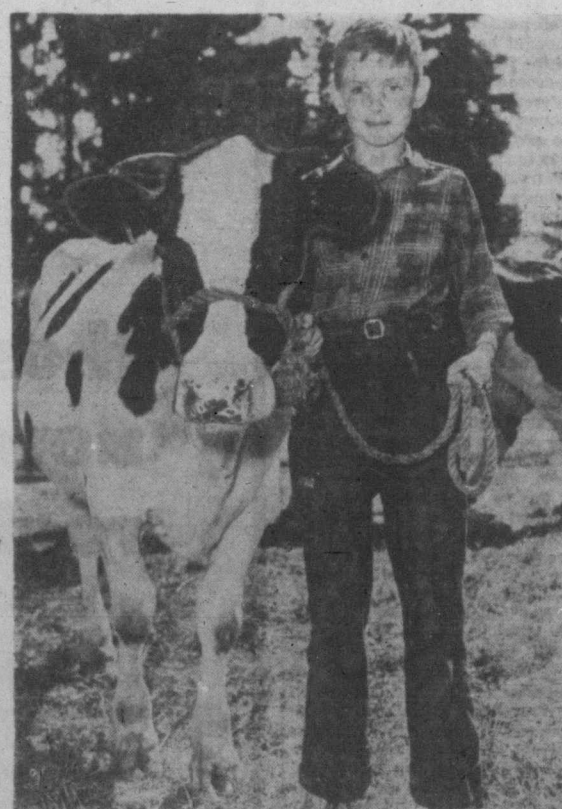

Every Canadian depends on railroads—not only for travel but also, as freight carriers, to bring him almost everything he eats, wears, dwells in, uses . . . It amounts to 12 tons a year for every citizen.

The railways EMPLOY a lot of people, too

They paid $544,000,000 in wages and salaries to over 190,000 Canadians last year. But that's just the beginning of what the railways mean to employment in Canada. Lumbermen, factory workers, miners, farmers—men in a hundred occupations—are busy producing things the railways buy. Last year their purchases added up to more than $400,000,000.

This advertisement is one of a series pointing out the railways' key place in Canada's economy. As Canada's largest builders of railway rolling stock and equipment, this company and its employees are directly concerned with the railway industry. Canadian Car & Foundry, operating eight modern plants, turns out thousands of railway cars of every type. The company is fully equipped to supply Canada's railways with the latest type passenger and freight cars to meet the growing needs of our expanding economy.

Calgary Stamps, Saskatchewan In Gridiron Triumphs

Husky Joe Krol came up with 26 points during the week-end in sparking Toronto Argonauts to 26 to 18, and 36 to 14 victories over Hamilton Wildcats and a tie with Ottawa Roughriders in the Interprovincial Rugby Football Union.

The Argos' powerhouse, given outstanding support by running mate Royal Copeland was easily the standout player in the eight games played in eastern Canada during the long "holiday" week-end.

Krol ran up his total in two touchdowns, a field goal, five singles, and eight converts.

Roughriders won their place at the top of the loop with a 22 to 2 victory over Montreal Saturday.

In the Ontario Rugby Football Union, Sarnia Imperials won two week-end games — Hamilton Tigers 7 to 6 Saturday and Windsor Rockets 13 to 9 Monday. The Rockets overwhelmed Toronto Beavers 29 to 1 in a Saturday game.

The Western Interprovincial Union saw the Dominion champion Calgary Stampedeers bang out a 20 to 6 victory over Annis Stukas' Edmonton Eskimos under the lights last night before 11,123 fans. In a day game, Saskatchewan Roughriders avenged a first-game loss to Winnipeg by shellacking the Bluebombers 20 to 0.

Ned Ashe Wins Back Lipton Cup For Victoria In Regatta Race

They're off! Swift little Star class sailboats begin their race in the Cowichan Bay regatta Sunday, which was jointly sponsored by Vancouver Island's yacht clubs.

The coveted Sir Thomas Lipton Cup was won back for Victoria by Ned Ashe in his auxiliary cruiser May D at the annual Cowichan Bay regatta Sunday.

The cup, offered each year by the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, was won last year by Westwind, owned by George Miller of the Corinthian Yacht Club, Seattle.

A light breeze and variable winds prevailed at Cowichan Bay for the races, calling for skill as well as luck on the part of the winners. Over 100 yachts from Vancouver Island, B.C. mainland and Washington State ports registered for the regatta.

All small craft, including Stars, raced the short course from the starting point between Genoa and Cowichan to Cherry Point, twice around. Larger yachts raced the longer course to Moses Point, once around.

After the races, prize-giving took place from the porch of the Lodge House at Genoa Bay. First prizes were various trophies and cups which change hands each year, pewter steins for those winning firsts, and

Women Storm Ranks Of Animal Doctors

LONDON (CP) — Girls are clamoring to get into the veterinary profession, reports the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons.

Seventy out of every 100 applicants for entrance to the college are women. But not many are being taken.

"If all the women on the waiting list were admitted for training at once there would be a heavy preponderance of women students," said a spokesman.

At present one in 17 surgeons on the college register is a woman. One or two of the women "vets" have been remarkably successful.

"They have completely won over the farmers whose animals they are tending," said the college spokesman.

Luxton and Happy Valley Women's Institute meet Wednesday evening at Luxton Hall to complete plans and assist Metchoin Farmer's Institute for fall fair September 12.

Local Delegates At Provincial Conference

CHOATE LAKE, B.C. (CP)—Women must have a full share in the government of Canada before this country will reach the "zenith of its power and glory as a nation," says the national president of the Canadian Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs.

Miss Ruth McGill, told the British Columbia organization's first provincial conference that responsibilities of citizenship involve equal participation of women in all branches of government at all levels.

In this connection the conference resolved to protest strongly the recent action of the provincial government in "discriminating against married women in the B.C. Civil Service Commission."

In the municipal field the delegates urged individual women's clubs to campaign for eligible women to run for municipal office.

Provincial president, Miss Minnie Beveridge, in her report showed that clubs in British Columbia now number 22, with a membership of more than 550. Newest clubs are Trail, Nelson, Oliver and Princeton, she said, and added that the provincial organization slogan was "one thousand members by 1950," year of the national conference at Halifax.

Report of Miss V. T. Harris, research convener, showed that British Columbia clubs were conscious of the need to be well-informed on working conditions for women within the province. Study had been made during the year by many clubs, she said, on working conditions and pay in various district and industries.

Looking ahead to the future, President Miss McGill also visioned the place of Canadian Business and Professional Women in the International Federation with more than 250,000 women in 20 countries as working members.

"We must work in even closer harmony with federation in other countries and through our international federation and the United Nations if we are to play our part in a world at peace," she concluded.

Auxiliary Plans Fall Tea, Bazaar

September meeting of General Women's Auxiliary Metropolitan United Church was held in schoolroom with Mrs. F. H. Parsons, president, presiding.

Plans were made for a fall tea to be held in the church school room, Oct. 18, and a bazaar on Nov. 10 to be held in Hard-of-Hearing Hall.

Loyal Group will hold a rummage sale Wednesday and Alpha Group a rummage sale on Sept. 27. Both will be held in Hard-of-Hearing Hall, Douglas Street.

Devotional was taken by Mrs. Standin, in place of Mrs. J. McCurdy, devotional secretary, who is now making her home in Vancouver. Next month Mrs. Bracewell will have charge.

Reports on the recent Protestant Orphanage garden party were given, and Mrs. R. Hetherington reported on sick calls made. Following business session, Mrs. Parsons entertained at tea.

Engagements

Announcements to appear under this heading will be accepted at the Times Advertising Department. Minimum charge $1.00 for 10 lines and 15¢ for each additional line.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Rain of Victoria announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Roberta, to Mr. John Mawer, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mawer, Victoria. The wedding to take place on Saturday, October 8, 1949, at 7:30 o'clock at Victoria Truth Centre.

Doris Rainey Dons Bridal Satin For Candlelight Rites

Soft candlelight from stately candelabra enhanced the exquisite satin bridal dress worn by Miss Doris Lydia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rainey, 667 St. Patrick Street, for her marriage to Henry William Nielsen, Saturday evening at 8.

The grooms' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Nielsen, 1304 Carnes Street, received guests with the newlyweds and the bride's parents at a reception in Newstead Realty Hall.

Rev. William Allan conducted marriage rites in Fairfield United Church which was decorated with tall baskets of brightly-hued gladioli.

Mrs. J. S. McCollm sang "Because" while the register was signed.

A shower spray of scarlet roses and dewy white carnations was the sole color note in the beautiful bridal ensemble.

Yoked in lace, the wedding dress was designed with fitted bodice below waist-length, long, sheathed sleeves, and slightly en train skirt, with full gathers at the back. In front, the gown was enriched with inserts of lace on the full skirt.

Flowing to full-length was the wedding veil, bordered with hand-tatted design, and held with tatted headpiece in sweetheart mode.

Mrs. David Smith and Miss Margaret Rainey, sisters of the newlyweds, were in attendance. They wore identical full-skirted, puff-sleeved frocks in pink, and carried sprays of pink and mauve gladioli.

Cousin of the bride, Miss May Rainey, as flower girl, wore a full-length mauve frock with butterfly sleeves, and carried a Colonial posy.

Guests were seated by Allan Thompson and David Smith. Terence Harboured was best man.

Archie McKinnon proposed the bride's toast at the reception, where wedding bells and streamers formed a gay setting. Lighted

RAISIN PEANUT BUTTER SPREAD

Wholesome, nutritious and delicious to the last bite is good description for this "Raisin Peanut Butter Spread" for sandwiches. Chopped celery and green pepper supply a crunchiness. Raisins and peanut butter pack a terrific wallop of essential food values for schoolboys and girls.

One-half cup seedless raisins, ½ cup chopped green sweet pepper, ½ cup peanut butter, 1-cup chopped celery, ½ teaspoon salt, mayonnaise.

Rinse raisins, drain and chop. Combine with green pepper, peanut butter, celery and salt. Blend with sufficient mayonnaise to give spreading consistency.

Johnny Longden Gets New Mount For British Race

LONDON (CP)—Johnny Longden, the Alberta-trained leading North American jockey, will get into the famed St. Leger, Britain's last three-year-old classic of the racing season, after all.

It was announced today that Longden has been engaged to ride Mon Chateaufort in the race Saturday, after having been robbed of a chance to ride the Aga Khan's Hindostan.

Hindostan came up yesterday with a sore foot and will not compete.

Longden, a native of Yorkshire who was brought up in Taber, Alta., is on a three-week holiday in Britain. On a temporary license to ride on British tracks, he already has booted home a winner.

Mon Chateaufort, a French-bred horse, was quoted at 66 to 1 in the last callover.

The American colt, Lone Eagle, owned by New Yorker William Woodward, was a firm 4 to 1 favorite.

Bookmakers cut Lone Eagle's price from 5 to 1 at the previous callover. The odds against Lord Derby's Swallow Tail went to 5 to 1 from 11 to 2.

The bookies also cut the odds against Royal Forest, intended mount of Britain's champion jockey, Gordon Richards, but immediately after the betting session ended came an announcement from trainer Noel Murless that Royal Forest has strained a tendon and will not run.

That left 18 probable starters.

WORLD RECORD TOSS

KATOWICE, Poland (Reuter)—L. Nemeth, Hungarian holder of the Olympic title, yesterday set up a hammer-throw world record here, with 195 feet, 5 1/2 inches. This beat his own world record of 193 feet, 7 1/2 inches, established last year.

Low-Cost Home

Here is a six-room, frame bungalow which should make a hit with the housewife who complains of lack of storage space. Designed by Roy Sellers, the plan provides one large bedroom and two smaller ones with extra closet space at every turn. Vertical wood boarding with 1x2-in. battens applied over the joints is shown as the exterior finish, but other finishes could be substituted to suit individual tastes. The exterior dimensions are 34.4 x 35.1' while the area of the house for estimating purposes is 1,136 square feet. (Working drawings may be obtained from any office of Central Mortgage and Housing at minimum cost.)

Parade, Sports Feature Holiday At Lake Cowichan

By TIMES CORRESPONDENT
LAKE COWICHAN — Lake Cowichan's sixth annual Labor Day celebration was an all-day out successful affair as far as sports and entertainment was concerned with the attendance believed to be the largest since the celebrations were started.

Dead Heat Marks Swim At Toronto

TORONTO (CP) — The first dead heat in three heavy swim programs at the Canadian National Exhibition was registered yesterday when Vivien King of Winnipeg and Kay Miles of London, Ont., hit the tape together in the women's 100 yard freestyle senior event. Their time was 4.1.

Miss King thought she won and officials asked for a re-race. Miss Miles refused further competition.

George Bevins of Winnipeg won the 100 yards backstroke for junior men.

VALUE

1 PERMANENT ECONOMY
Yes, and that right insulation—the insulation for permanent economy—is rigid fibre board.
Here's why it gives you more for your building dollar than any other material.
It is a permanent, maintenance-free, many-purpose product combining all the recognized features of sound insulation.

2 BIG FUEL SAVING
Half an inch of Ten-Test fibre board saves you fuel immediately . . . and continues to do so for the entire lifetime of the building.

3 EXTRA STRENGTH
Because Ten-Test is rigid and strong, it builds as it insulates . . . giving permanent structural strength. It also provides decorative interiors.

4 DRAFTS CHECKED
Ten-Test presents a solid wall of protection against drafts because panels fit snug and tight . . . won't sag or settle.

5 MOISTURE STOPPED
Ten-Test stops moisture penetration and condensation . . . and moisture is a great destroyer of insulating efficiency.

Bridge

By Wm. E. McKenney
America's Card Authority

It is always a lot of fun to watch my old friend Murry Gross play rubber bridge. The other day in New York he picked up the North cards.

For some reason Gross seemed a little pessimistic when he only bid six clubs, which is the correct bid, over West's five diamonds. When the opponents bid six diamonds, I knew he was not going to double. He joyfully bid seven clubs. After he had made his contract he turned to me and said, "See, Mac, if you overbid a little, you learn to make these hands." Gross did make the hand with a double squeeze. He won the opening lead of the queen of spades with the ace and went over to dummy by playing a small club to the jack. On the king of spades he discarded the six of hearts. He cashed the king of diamonds, then ran all of his clubs, getting himself down to the ten of hearts and the ace-ten of diamonds. East had to bare down to the jack of spades and the eight and four of hearts. Dummy was down to the nine of spades and the ace-five of hearts. West had the king of hearts and jack-nine of diamonds. Gross now led the ace of diamonds. If East discarded the jack of spades, dummy's nine would be good. He decided to let go the four of hearts. Dummy's nine of spades was discarded and he won the last two tricks in dummy with the ace and five of hearts.

Tarzan Series Goes On; First Came Away Back In 1918

By SOL LESSER
(For Bob Thomas)

(Sol Lesser has been a producer since Jackie Coogan's heyday as a juvenile. Lesser made his first Tarzan picture in 1945.)

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—At the moment you are reading this an audience somewhere is watching a Tarzan movie.

Nearly 50 Tarzan movies have been made since Elmo Lincoln first thumped his barrel chest before the silent cameras in 1918. Of these, almost one-half are still in constant circulation.

Some motion picture theatres run each Tarzan picture as often as eight and 10 times. Some European and South American audiences accept new Tarzan films grudgingly—they prefer to see the old ones over and over again.

One theatre in Ecuador obtained prints of eight Tarzan pictures. These were strung together and run off without pause for an audience which brought its lunches and dinners, then had to be shoed from theatre at conclusion of the 13-hour show!

UNIVERSAL APPEAL

It is safe to say that no character of fiction has ever possessed such universal and enduring appeal. In the 30 years Tarzan pictures have been produced, 10 actors have essayed the role of the jungle lord, and the popularity of the series has remained on a steadily rising plane.

NO MATINEE IDOL

Fans want no matinee idol playing Tarzan. They insist their hero be portrayed by a real athlete.

From the motion picture series alone, author Edgar Rice Burroughs has amassed a fortune of $2,000,000, and he still collects a minimum of $175,000 for the right to use his character in each picture made.

Form Society For Welfare Of Animals

Formation of a society for the promotion of the welfare of animals was discussed at a meeting held at 608 Scollard Building. The chairman, Miss Nora Colquhoun, stated that, in her opinion, there is a general feeling that satisfactory progress is not being made in regard to the protection and general welfare of animals and it is desired to form a society to inaugurate legislation on behalf of animals. A meeting will be held shortly to elect officers, and persons interested are asked to leave their names at 608 Scollard Building.

Racing Owners Miss Bonus Pool At Vancouver Meet

VANCOUVER (CP)—Even the horse owners lost in case there is a punter about with some sour grapes over the 56-day Exhibition Park racing meet which ended yesterday.

Eighteen thousand bettors poured $290,000 into the mutuels yesterday at the close of the regular season. But it wasn't enough. The Labor Day crowd, 10,000 less than last year, missed the horsemen's hopes by $44,000. They had agreed with operator Sam Randall, last spring, that $850 purses, instead of $900; would be satisfactory provided the mutuel take did not exceed $7,000,000.

It didn't. When final tabulations were made last night, the horsemen had missed the boat by exactly $44,870. To horsemen, the difference meant a loss in purses of approximately $19,000.

Contract Awarded For Road Project

The provincial works department has awarded to General Construction Co. Ltd. a contract for $259,225 for the reconstruction of 11.06 miles of the Kamloops-Vernon road between Westwood and Falkland.

When tenders were opened by Works Minister E. C. Carson on Tuesday it appeared that General was the second lowest bidder. Harry Anderson, chief engineer, reported however, that Emil Anderson Construction Co., which had submitted a bid of $253,845, had omitted to tender on one of the contract items. The tender therefore failed to qualify, he said.

Man Dies Fighting Fire Near White Rock

WHITE ROCK, B.C. (CP)—

Weary firemen and volunteers Monday night brought under control a rash of bush fires which claimed one life and swept 20 acres during the holiday week-end near this municipality, 30 miles south of Vancouver.

Twelve fires, blamed on carelessness of campers and settlers burning rubbish, were whipped into violence late Sunday, by strong winds. Andrew Thompson, 69, fell over a log and died of a heart attack while helping to fight one of the blazes.

Bulldozers were called into action when lack of water in the area set back the fire fighters.

Officers Installed

Past President T. Wallace installed newly-elected officers of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society, in the K. of P. Hall, Corner Street.

Those installed were: President, J. Robertson; first vice-president, G. Sinclair; second vice-president, G. Dakers; secretary, Georgina MacKay; treasurer, Mrs. J. Marrs; financial secretary, Helen MacDonald; chaplain, Mrs. C. M. Moyes; warden, D. B. Caird; outer guard, J. H. A. Stevens; immediate past president, J. Marrs.

A brief history of the lodge's possessions was given by J. Marrs, immediate past president.

A social and dance followed.

House Insurance Rates In B.C. Cut

Reductions in British Columbia fire insurance rates have been announced by Graham Rose, chief surveyor for the province's 173 board insurance firms.

Rates on dwellings in Victoria and Vancouver were slashed by 10 per cent and elsewhere in the province the rate will be cut by 15 per cent in towns and cities with fire protection.

The cut does not apply to towns and cities classed as unprotected or semi-protected. This class received a rate reduction April 1.

Double Win Labor Day Gives Douglas Tire Provincial Softball Title In Five Games

Second baseman Gar Taylor of Douglas Tire ducks from a high inside pitch in fourth game of B.C. senior A men's softball finals at Central Park Labor Day. Catcher is John McBeth of New Westminster Army and Navy, while umpire is Barney Barnswell.

An Underdog New Westminster Army and Navy softball squad, its line-up bruised and crippled, forced Douglas Tire to the limit in the B.C. men's senior A championship over the week-end before bowing out in the final game of the best-of-five series.

So close was the series that Jim Lackie's highly-favored squad was forced to come from behind with a three-run rally in the last half of the eighth inning of the final game to snatch victory from apparent defeat.

Tiremen, winners of the first game on Saturday night 4 to 0, literally handed the mainland champion two games on Sunday with some odd base running and fielding lapses before coming back on Labor Day to grab the final two games 6 to 3 and 4 to 2.

The final game was a pitcher's battle between Norm Martin of Douglas Tire and Jim Aitken of the New Westminster nine, with Martin winning out 4 to 2.

Aitken, winner of only one game this season in the major A men's softball league on the mainland, blanked the tiremen for six innings in the final on just two hits.

He gave up one run in the seventh on a double play by Jim Morrison and a single by Don Robinson but still held a 2 to 1 edge entering the eighth stanza. Leo Jerome, star right fielder of the visitors had given the mainlanders a two-run bulge in the fifth when he hammered a home run into the trees in left field with one aboard.

SERIES BREAK

Toad Garnet opened the eighth with an infield single. The play at first was close with Westminster protesting umpire Murray Dunnett's decision to no avail. A sacrifice hit and an error by shortstop Sam Stoddart put runners on first and second with only one out.

Vic Dale then laced a single into leftfield to score the tying run and Jim Morrison followed with another single to left to score Henry Harris and Dale with the winning markers.

Martin was in trouble only in the fifth inning when he gave up four hits including Jerome's home run. It was his second win of the series.

FOURTH GAME
The fourth game of the series also saw the tiremen come from behind to win 6 to 3.

Army and Navy jumped into a two-run lead in the first inning with the help of errors by Dale and third baseman Robinson of the locals. Douglas Tire rammed across three runs in the fifth to go ahead on a walk to Morrison, a triple by Robinson and a home run by Chick Newman.

Army and Navy tied the count in the sixth on singles by Lucky Lang and Russ Briscoe and a sacrifice hit. Four bases on balls, a single by Dale and a double by Ken Gunter gave the Lackiemens their three-run margin in the seventh.

THIRD GAME
On Sunday in the third game of the set, Army and Navy scored two runs in the top of the ninth inning to break a four-to-four tie on singles by Earl Lee, Lang and Sid Martin. Tiremen retaliated with a single marker on Toad Garnet's triple and an outfield fly by Byers. Briscoe, who relieved started Aitken, was the winning pitcher in Westminster's 6 to 5 decision.

SECOND GAME

In the first game of Sunday's twin bill Gunter herled three-hit ball only to lose 2 to 1.

Leading 1 to 0 on a first-inning double by Henry Harris and a single by Morrison—Gunter himself threw the ball game away in the sixth when he booted two successive sacrifice hits following a base on balls allowing two runs to score.

The tiremen could have won it in the ninth but for some of the queerest base running tactics of the season.

Dale led-off with a single but was out trying to stretch the hit into a double. Byers followed with a double but also was out trying for the extra base. Newman followed with another hit but the damage had already been done by the preceding hitters.

Short scores follow:

First Game—	W.	L.	Pct.
Douglas Tire	4	1	.800
New Westminster	1	4	.200

Second Game—	W.	L.	Pct.
Douglas Tire	2	2	.500

CANCEL BOXING FINAL
VANCOUVER (CP)—The proposed British Columbia junior lacrosse final between Eagle-Turner and Trail has been canceled. Vancouver Lacrosse Association president Ben Morley said today.

Athletics Wind Up Season In 5th Position; Draw 115,044

Victoria Athletics closed out another Western International League baseball season yesterday by sweeping both holiday games against Bremerton Blue-jackets 24 to 4 and 11 to 6. The A's wound up the campaign with a season's attendance of 115,044, a drop of 32,000 over the 1948 figures. The Victoria club finished in fifth position, a spot they held in the closing weeks of the race. Sunday the Athletics won a doubleheader at Tacoma 9 to 4 and 2 to 1.

From the standpoint of a pennant contender the season proved a disastrous one for the Athletics. Getting off to a miserable start the team remained in the cellar for considerable time.

The poor showing resulted in the release of Manager Ted Norbert with Earl Bolyard being brought out from the east to take over. With the addition of pitchers Jim Propst and Joe Blankenship the Athletics made a final bid for a playoff berth, moving within two games of fourth-place Wenatchee but blew their chances by dropping a four-game home stand to the Chiefs.

PLAYOFFS OPEN

Wenatchee and Spokane will open the playoffs with the winners to battle it out in the finals.

Today Manager Bolyard and members of the Athletics were en route to their homes in many parts of the United States.

Charlie Balassi's home run with the bases loaded in the eighth was the highlight of the night game. The grand slam smash was even more tasteful to the 1,700 fans when it came off their old enemy John Marshall. Taking over from southpaw Jay Ragni with the score tied and runners on second and third Marshall purposely walked Gil McDougall to load the bases.

Len Noren dropped a single back of first base to score one run and leave the bags still jammed. Balassi brought the stands down when he lifted the ball over the centre field wall.

Dick Mitchell, lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth, received credit for the win. Frank Logue mopped up in the ninth.

PARADE OF HITS

Afternoon game was a procession of base hits as the A's slugged Frank LeBrum to his first pitching win since joining the club late in the season. Athletics picked up 21 hits, including a home run by Johnny Hack, triple by Ray Jacobs and doubles by Gordon Johnston, Len Noren, LeBrum, Charlie Balassi, Hack and Jacobs, off the offerings of four Bremerton tossers. Southpaw Verne Kahout, who started, was charged with the loss.

Jacobs with his triple and double and seven runs batted in led the Victoria club at the plate. Johnston picked up three for four and Noren three for six.

After Bremerton had moved into a 4 to 3 lead in the top of the fifth on the strength of four runs on two walks, Jay Ragni's double and Bill Taylor's home run the Athletics cut loose. They pushed over four runs in the bottom of the fifth, picked up seven more in the sixth, all of them coming after two were out, got another six in the seventh and closed out the scoring with four in the eighth.

Game Gonzales Comes From Far Back To Retain Tennis Crown

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UP)—Richard (Pancho) Gonzales, the kid they called a "flake" champion a year ago, was the acknowledged master of amateur tennis today and probably will turn professional for a tour with Jack Kramer next year.

As two-time champion and conqueror of the redoubtable Ted Schroeder of La Crescenta, Calif., the swarthy, scar-faced Mexican youth from Los Angeles virtually can dictate his own price for turning pro.

Gonzales, riding the heaviest service delivery since Bill Tilden developed his cannon-ball, thumped Schroeder yesterday in a thrill-packed final for the U.S. singles championship, 16-18, 2-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-4.

It was the longest match in the history of American final-round duels: with a total of 67 games; and the first set at 16-18 was the longest single set on championship final record. Johnny Doeg posted a 16-14 set victory over Frank Shields in the 1930 final for the previous high and the Doeg-Shields total of 65 games stood as a record out before 13,000, cheering fans.

OPEN TO PRO OFFERS

Gonzales will listen to pro offers, but not right away.

"I want to think about things for a while," he said.

Presumably, he'll be thinking mostly about his asking price. Kramer admitted yesterday that Pancho's services would cost "a mint," but that, he'd be worth it.

Pancho was regarded as something of a fluke winner last year when he defeated the best of a lightly-considered field at the age of 20.

But there was no question of his right to the crown today, for he whipped the 1949 Wimbledon champion at his own game in five grueling sets. Schroeder, at his best under pressure in a marathon match, was the man who cracked—not Pancho.

It was serve, volley and smash between the world's two best amateurs and Pancho did it just a little bit better.

Gonzales lost his temper and almost his match when a questionable call by the umpire gave Schroeder a set point in that wild first set. Pancho lost the next point and the set. He was so disgusted he kicked away the second set at 6-2.

But with two sets against him, the six foot, one inch champion tore into Schroeder with such fury Ted couldn't stop him for two sets and apparently was preparing to make his last stand in the fifth set.

GREAT FINISH

The final set went the way of the first for eight games, each crashing brilliant service and winning his own delivery. Schroeder broke in the ninth game, netting twice and helplessly watching two Gonzales placements fall in-bounds. Pancho held service and that was the match.

Service aces told much of the story, with Pancho blazing 27 and Schroeder nine. Two Pancho aces and Schroeder's second ball.

Mrs. Margaret Osborne Dupont of Wilmington, Del., retained her women's crown by downing Doris Hart of Jacksonville, Fla., 6-4, 6-1.

Cantrell Drives My Sweetie To Second Major Win

DETROIT (UP)—Daredevil "Wild Bill" Cantrell and speedy My Sweetie were atop motor-boating's throne again today after winning the Labor Day week-end silver cup regatta with ease.

They rule as the first driver-boat combination to annex both the treasured gold and silver cups, symbolic of American racing supremacy.

Cantrell, floor-boarded My Sweetie around the rough three-mile Detroit River course to two new speed records—a 45-mile heat mark of 81.974 m.p.h. and a lap clocking of 85.2 m.p.h. They convinced boating enthusiasts that they would be hard to stop in their quest for the President's Cup in the season finale at Washington Sept. 18.

The champions who sped off with the gold cup early in the summer romped off with the silver cup with little trouble.

Detroit's Jack Schaefer's Such Crust I, pre-race favorite, finished second, two miles back in Saturday's first heat and yesterday failed to start after the 12th lap because of engine trouble.

Dockery played 35 games with Los Angeles Monarchs last season, and comes to Cougars on a look-see basis. A native of Calgary, he turned pro with the Bruins last year and played with Tulsa, Okla., in the United States League before going to Los Angeles.

Victoria Cricketers In Intercity Victory

Victory over the Seattle Rainiers in yesterday's intercity cricket match against Vancouver and then dismissed the visitors for 73 runs in chalking up a relatively easy victory.

Opening batsmen Scott and Wenman ran up 32 runs before Scott was caught by Hendy of the mainlanders. Morgan then joined Wenman and they carried the score to 43 before Morgan was dismissed for three. Sparks and Stanley did not stay long. Lonsdale and Wenman ran the score to 83 before Wenman was smartly caught by Scoby. Lonsdale contributed a useful 12.

Hobson with 40 and Hendy with 14 were the pick of the Vancouver side.

Hendy and Scoby did most of the damage in bowling for Vancouver while for the local side Richards and Scott took the majority of wickets.

Rainiers Score Double Shutout Over Los Angeles

Can Hollywood last in the hot Coast League baseball race?

The Stars, out in front most of the season, still hold a three game edge over the Oakland Oaks, the 1948 champs. With only 20 games left, the stretch run shapes up as a neck and neck two-team affair.

Hollywood looked like it could make it in taking two from Sacramento Labor Day, the pacesetter's fifth straight win. Willie Ramsdell threw a one-hitter to annex the opener 2 to 1. The lone poke was a pinch homer by rookie Bill Wilson. The Stars' hurler had to throw his best ones as the Solons' Orv Grove gave up but three safeties in losing. The Stars won the second 6 to 3.

The Seattle Rainiers' two pitching aces, Guy Fletcher and Charlie Schanz, blanked Los Angeles twice 2 to 0 and 3 to 0. Schanz won his 19th on a beautiful one-hit performance in the seven-inning nightcap. Big Guy allowed eight hits but had his troubles with the lowly Angels. Successive home runs in the seventh inning by Jack Warren and Al Lyons gave Guy his two-run margin.

Old Cowichan Fires Flare Up, Brought Under Control Again

The more than month-old Meade Creek and Stoltz Logging company forest fires in the Lake Cowichan area flared up during high winds Monday but both are under control today, B.C. Forest Service here reports.

The Meade Creek blaze raged down Copper Canyon but was brought to a stop by a company crew of 45 men. The Stoltz blaze burned a few acres of green timber before it was brought under control.

These two fires were among 15 blazes reported in the forests of the Vancouver Forest District during the three-day week-end. All now are under control.

The majority of them were "spot" blazes which were extinguished before doing any damage.

B.C. forest officials described the hazard east of the Rockies today as high, but said west of the Rockies the hazard was still in the low-moderate category.

Some of the worst fires of the season have been recorded in the Peace River district this year.

A big reduction in the fire fighting force in the Kamloops district indicates that the Juliet and Coquahalla blazes near the Kettle Valley railway each of hope were controlled and practically out.

The Victoria West Community Association will meet Thursday evening at 8 in the assembly hall of Victoria West School, it was announced today by Ald. Charles Banfield, president.

Potatoes, Corn, Root Vegetable Prices Take Drop

Prices for potatoes, corn, beets, carrots, parsnips and turnips dropped today. New price for potatoes will be $10 a ton wholesale.

Wholesalers urged all housewives who have not purchased potatoes for preserving purposes to do so immediately as this will be the last big week for Alberta Okanagan peaches. Heavy shipments will come all this week, but agents stated few, if any, would come next week.

First shipment of hyslop crab apples of the season is expected to arrive from the Okanagan here with shipment of Damson plums.

Wholesalers announced that bananas are plentiful this week. Okanagan wealthy apples are expected Wednesday and a small supply of cantaloupes will be in later this week. The cantaloupe season was almost completed, wholesalers stated. A shipment of Spanish onions arrived this morning.

Tourists Robbed Of Money, Watch

While tourist occupants of two hotel rooms were asleep between 2 and 7 this morning, a thief entered and stole $181 in cash and express cheques and a watch valued at $75.

One room was occupied by Mrs. Felix Douglas, 3414 South Lorne Avenue, Olympia, Wash., and another by Arthur Lines, 419 Franklin Street, Denver, city, police reported.

The thief took Mrs. Douglas large handbag with $120 in U.S. currency from it. The bag was later found in the washroom. From the Lines room, the report given police said, the burglar stole the wrist watch and a wallet containing $1 in cash, $60 in U.S. Express cheques and two gas credit cards.

The report did not say how entry was gained.

No Serious Traffic Accidents Mar Holiday Here; Five Hurt

One man suffered bruises in this Fernwood and Haultain bus-car collision Monday evening.

Four persons were treated at the Jubilee Hospital for minor injuries, extensive damage was done to some cars and three drivers are to be summonsed on driving charges, as a result of city holiday week-end accidents, city police reported.

Police throughout the area reported the bright holiday period was not marred by any accidents of a serious nature.

Frank Gentry, 2208 Fernwood Road, was treated for bruises to both legs when the bus in which he was a passenger was in collision with a car at 6:50 Monday evening at Fernwood and Haultain Street. Douglas W. Baker, 815 North Park Street, was treated for cuts after his North-western Creamery truck hit a telephone pole in the 900 block of St. Charles Street Sunday afternoon. Police said approximately $700 damage was done to the truck. The pole was cracked.

City police said the B.C.E.R. bus was driven by Alex V. Stephens, 877 Wollaston Street, and the car by Bernard W. Laycock, Langford. Laycock car, which was impounded, sustained about $350 worth of damage. About $150 damage was done to the bus.

Laycock pleaded guilty to a charge of dangerous driving in city court today and was fined $40. He was ordered not to drive other than for business purposes for two months.

HIT LIGHT POLE

Twenty-five minutes later a car driven by Hector V. Vogler was in collision with a light pole on Burnside Road, police said. Vogler was treated at Jubilee Hospital for a cut on the head. Police said the driver will be charged with careless driving.

About $90 damage was done to the right fender of the car.

Officers reported that a car driven by Walter A. Walters, 805 Craigflower Road, was in collision with three boys standing on the edge of the north side of Haultain Street between Fernwood Road and Garden Street, at 8:30 Sunday night.

Police said Wayne Richardson, aged 10, was treated at hospital for a cut on the head and abrasions to the left leg. Errol Richardson, aged 13, was treated for a bump on the head. The report said the third boy ran away. Police said Walters' car was impounded pending certain inquiries.

Approximately $300 damage was done to a car driven by Ronald A. Martin, 2370 Richmond Avenue, when it was in collision with one driven by James R. M. Cook, H.M.C.S. Naden, Sunday night at 9:45 on Quadra Street. Police said Cook will be summonsed for careless driving.

Inquest Tomorrow To Probe Mysterious Death Of Girl

An inquest will be held tomorrow morning at 10 at Sands Funeral Parlors to probe the mysterious death of attractive Roberta A. Smith, 18, of 3163 Gamma Street, whose body was found drifting in the waters of Thetis Lake last Saturday morning.

It is hoped that an autopsy being performed on the body will reveal the cause of death, the results of which will be told at the inquest.

The girl had been employed as an operator at the B.C. Telephone Company since June this year.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Smith, were informed by the company at 5 Friday night that Roberta had not reported for work.

It is understood the police have questioned several persons who saw Roberta between 5 that night and when she was found by three navy men who were fishing at the lake at 7:05 Saturday.

Inspector Robert Owens, in command of the lower island division of the B.C. Police, and Sgt. O. L. Hall of the Victoria detachment, are in charge of investigations.

Police do not believe the girl met with foul play. There is a possibility she may have slipped on the rocks and fallen into the water. Broken teeth and a cut under an eye indicate this might have occurred.

Roberta is survived by her parents, four brothers, Elwood, Meldram, Martin and Glenn, and a sister, Elaine.

Executive of the union was holding a pre-convention session this afternoon.

Native Hawaiians Interpret Dances, Render National Songs

Attracting much notice over Labor Day holiday in Victoria was the Youth Caravan from the Episcopal missionary district of Honolulu on a tour of the Pacific west coast before attending the general convention of the Episcopal Church and the National Youth Convention in San Francisco Sept. 26.

The purpose of the tour is educational, as well as to bring to the young people contacted by the caravan the greeting "Aloha" of the Hawaiian Islands. In the party of 14, nine of whom are girls, several racial strains are represented. Some of the members are of Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Hawaiian and of Caucasian racial origin.

The party started on their tour on Aug. 30 from San Francisco. They arrived in Victoria from Port Angeles Sunday and left today for Anacortes, en route to San Francisco.

During their stay here the visitors were shown around Christ Church Cathedral after attending the morning service there Sunday.

The A.Y.P.A. of St. John's entertained them in the evening in the church hall. The group in return entertained with traditional dances and songs rendered in Korean, Hawaiian and English. Colorful leis and costumes were worn.

The leader of the group is Rev. Richard Trelease Jr., director of youth work and vicar of St. Christopher's mission, island of Oahu, assisted by Robert Kondon, in charge of youth work in the island of Kauai.

WHY PAY MORE? At Wally Gray's Retail Warehouse we have a large selection of Good Used Furniture and appliances at prices so low you can't believe them. Because a large part of our stock is "Trade-In" Furniture and because we sell from the low rent warehouse, we can sell for less. But the main reason for our low prices is our steady profit of a small profit and quick turnover. To be sure, we are a couple of blocks out of your way, but that is not so important as saving the dollars and cents. After all, we are only a block and a half from the H.B.C. Store. If you are not sure of our location, kindly phone us for directions. Thanks a lot, folks.

Civil Servants' Meeting On Index Bonus Delayed

The scheduled meeting of B.C. Provincial Government Employees' Association and provincial government officials today, at which the association planned to ask the government to implement its verbal agreement providing for an increase in the cost of living bonus for provincial civil servants, has been postponed.

The meeting was to be held by officials of the association with Premier Byron Johnson and Provincial Secretary George S. Pearson. Premier Johnson, however, was forced to break the appointment to attend the funeral of the late Rt. Hon. Ian Mackenzie in Vancouver.

Nevertheless E. P. O'Connor, of Vancouver, secretary and manager of the association, today conferred with the provincial Civil Service Commission. Accompanying him from Vancouver was A. C. Bennett, his assistant.

Under an unwritten agreement the government said it would pay a cost of living bonus up to a maximum of $16 per month to cover the most recent rise in the cost of living index.

The index rose to 162.8 during July, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics announced in Ottawa last Thursday.

The government is already paying two such 10 per cent bonuses. It is estimated that a further $1,000,000 will be needed to cover the annual cost of the latest increase.

Mr. Pearson on Thursday said that the question of whether or not the government would pay the increase was up to the provincial cabinet.

Maj. H. S. Archbold On Way To Kashmir

Maj. H. S. C. Archbold, 772 Victoria Avenue, is on his way to Kashmir in the role of assistant to the military adviser on the United Nations commission investigating current trouble over the India-Pakistan claims to sovereignty over the former princely state.

Maj. Archbold left the city Sunday for Srinagar, capital of Kashmir. He has been chosen as one of three British Columbianians to assist Lt. Col. Harry Angle, Kelowna, military adviser to the commission.

The monthly meeting of the Federal Superannuated Civil Servants of Canada will be held Wednesday afternoon in Britannia Legion Hall, 1616 Blanshard Street.

Close to 3,500 people lined Moss Street hill Labor Day morning to watch 12-year-old Norman Wilkinson, 2832 Parkview Drive, make a clean sweep of top prizes in the fifth annual Knights of Pythias Soap Box Derby.

Norman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkinson, in his good-looking, lucky seven car came first in both speed and distance events and took home in prizes a $100 scholarship, a brand new bicycle, a gilt racing helmet, a sweater, and a miniature racing car trophy.

He also was presented with the Blue Line perpetual challenge cup which he will hold for one year.

Keen competition was given the winner by 10-year-old Murray McIntyre, last year's champion, and 12-year-old Bob Calwell, Murray, son of Mr. and Mrs.

A. W. McIntyre, 2684 Dewdney Avenue, in his silver butter box, came second in the speed and coasting events, while Bob Calwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Calwell, came third in the speed race.

Both of the two leading cars were equipped with proper racing bug wheels made by a leading U.S. auto manufacturer for use by those who enter the big, international Soap Box Derby held every year in Akron, Ohio.

The wheels proved themselves here. While many of the cars failed to even reach the finish line, the two top cars coasted at a speed of about 25 miles per hour and coasted two full blocks beyond.

QUARTER-MILE COURSE

The quarter-mile course was downhill from Rockland Avenue to Richardson Street and on the level from Richardson to Carn-

Official starter for the meet was Provincial Police Inspector Bob Owens, who, with Ald. Frank Mulliner and Esquimalt Reeve A. I. Thomas judged the racing cars for special prizes.

Eleven-year-old Jack Anslow, 2852 Gorge View Drive, was awarded a prize for having the only real soap box car among the 60 entrants. The bonnet of Jack's speedy bug was a cardboard box with the word "Lux" prominently displayed.

Jack's brother, Dick, 10, came second and Charles Gould, 14, came third in the originality competition.

Earl Graham, 12, was awarded top prize for having the best looking racer. Runners-up for this honor were Bob Calwell and Fred Curtis.

Air Travel Takes Lead

Air travel took the lead over the Labor Day holiday weekend with Trans-Canada Air Lines reporting company planes carried 4,300 passengers in and out of Victoria's Pat Bay airport Friday to Monday inclusive.

It was one of the best weekends T.C.A.'s Victoria service has had since it went into operation here. Through the four-day period, the airline operated a total of 122 flights between Victoria and Vancouver, instead of the normal 80.

There was no increase in the regular four flights a day between Victoria and Seattle, which boosted the number of flights leaving and arriving at the Victoria airport for the four days to 138.

Vancouver Island Coach Lines Ltd. reported an exceptional holiday week-end. Traffic was heavy up-island, to the Saanich Fair and to the Cordova Bay regatta. Additional sections were run on all schedules with the exception of the Islander. Officials did not hesitate to say business was better than on the previous Labor Day.

The C.P.R.'s B.C. Coast Service reported an increase in the number of automobiles carried, but said passenger traffic was slightly down in comparison with last year. Over the four-day period, B.C.C.S. vessels carried approximately 800 automobiles in and out of Victoria, approximately 1,500 in and out of Nanaimo and approximately 180 in and out of Sidney.

Ward 7 Saanich Liberals enjoyed an evening of court whist at Hampton Hall, when Arthur Ash, M.L.A.-elect, presented the prizes: Ladies' first, won by Mrs. Boam; 2nd by Mrs. Morris and consolation by L. Kelly. Gent's first won by L. Curtis, second A. Derman, consolation by W. Pass.

Missing Saanich Boy Located

Four-year-old Skippy Brookes, Mount Douglas Auto Court, was found after an hour's search Monday night on the mountain side. While the services of Rod, Rangers' bloodhound, were not finally required, he was enroute with handlers to take part in the search when informed Skippy had been found.

According to the boy, he and his dog had climbed almost to the top of the mountain and then fell asleep. The boy awoke after dark, and in the meantime the worried parents had started a search. The S.O.S. to the Rangers was sent by Saanich officer Ed Anderson and John Burnett.

No Traffic Deaths Marred Week-end Holiday In B.C.

VANCOUVER (CP).—Death took a holiday along with thousands of British Columbians during the Labor Day week-end as a record number of people moved around the province by plane, bus, car and train.

A new high in air and steamship travel out of Vancouver was established while nearly 30,000 motorists went south of the border—10 per cent more than in 1948.

Diversion of buses from the King George Highway through the old Pacific Highway customs port apparently helped in eliminating the traffic line-ups which beset border travelers last July 1. While there were no traffic deaths or drownings, one B.C. man died while fighting a bush fire near White Rock. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Fall meeting of the Mission to Lepers will be held next Thursday at 3 in the Y.W.C.A. Miss Mildred Blakeley, missionary worker to the lepers for many years in the Philippines, will speak.

Forty Labor Day Deaths In Canada

By CANADIAN PRESS
Ontario, with 21 fatalities, led the violent death list of 40 in Canada during the Labor Day week-end, a Canadian Press compilation showed today.

The total, with four others missing and feared drowned, was a little higher than last year's 42 during the same week-end.

There were six fatalities in Nova Scotia, five in Quebec, four in Manitoba, two in Newfoundland and one each in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

There were 29 deaths in highway accidents, five drownings and six deaths from other causes.

Newfoundland had a double drowning near Grand Falls. Two trappers, Hodges Toulet, 50, and Alphonsus Best, 32, were drowned when their boat overturned.

Four men were missing in two other instances. At Grand Beach, Man., police hunted for Herbert Newman and Kenneth Rees, missing after two canoes upset in Lake Winnipeg. At Timmins, Ont., miners Otto Winsa and Atte Siren are missing since their overturned boat was discovered in a lake.

Sea Fish Landings Decrease In Canada

OTTAWA (CP).—The fish are not biting this year.

Landings of sea fish in Canada during July—Newfoundland excepted—were down 9 per cent from July last year and 13 per cent for the first seven months over the corresponding period in 1948, the Bureau of Statistics reported Friday.

The decline during July was due chiefly to a sharp decrease in catches on the west coast where adverse weather seems to have affected conditions. Total catch for the month totaled 127,511,000 pounds valued at $7,132,000. The catch in July, 1948, amounted to 140,243,000 pounds valued at $8,991,000.

To date this year 597,331,000 pounds of fish have been landed with a value of $27,068,000, compared with 685,983,000 pounds and $30,697,000 for the same period last year.

Total landings during July on the Atlantic coast were 101,383,000 pounds, or 13 per cent below last year.

The Pacific coast fisheries were 30.3 per cent lower than in July, 1948, totaling 26,128,000 pounds. Species showing the largest decreases were salmon—except white spring—soles, hering, tuna and oysters.

The regular business meeting of Chapter No. 25, Women of the Moose, will be held Thursday, Sept. 8, in lower K. of P. Hall, at 8 p.m. Social meeting will be held Sept. 22, 7:30 p.m., in the same hall.

Presume Flier Killed As U.S. Plane Crashes In Strait

Squadron On Way To Bombing Site When Craft Falls

SEATTLE (AP)—A United States naval reserve F-6F fighter plane spun out of control and plunged into the Strait of Juan de Fuca today.

Sand Point Naval Air Station officials said the pilot, a Seattle reserve flier, was presumed killed. His identity was withheld.

The Sand Point information office reported the plane was one of five en route northward to bombing practice. They were flying at high altitude when the fighter suddenly nosed up at 21,000 and fell out of control.

Commission May Consider CBC Taking Over All Radio

I.W.A. Membership Expected To Vote Toward End Of Week

Balloting in the government-supervised strike vote among coast loggers and sawmill employees will probably get under way toward the end of this week, it was learned today.

Earlier the government officials who are taking charge of the vote had hoped to have the balloting completed this week and the result known by Saturday, the deadline asked by the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.) which has requested the vote. Officials now say that the result probably will not be known until some time next week.

The arrangements for the ballot are not yet completed, but officials assure that satisfactory progress is being made. The supervising job is the biggest yet undertaken since the provision to supervise strike votes was written into B.C.'s labor code, the Industrial Conciliation and Arbitration Act, in 1947.

Officials here do not yet know how many supervisors will be needed for the job. But they have estimated that the vote will involve about 20,000 employees in an estimated 165 logging firms.

The union leaders are seeking authority of the membership to call a strike to back up the union's demands.

OTTAWA (CP)—Peter Wright, counsel for the Royal Commission on Arts and Science, said today the commission may have to consider whether private radio stations in Canada should be expropriated by the publicly-owned CBC.

In a charge to the commission before hearings on briefs submitted by the CBC and the Canadian Association of Broadcasters, Mr. Wright said the "first and heaviest task" given the commission is to examine and make recommendations on "the principles upon which the policy of Canada should be based in the fields of radio and television broadcasting."

He recalled that a 1929 Royal Commission recommended a complete national radio broadcasting system for Canada patterned after the publicly-owned BBC in Britain.

The situation, he said, has changed greatly since that commission's report was made. The national system has grown to its present status and alongside it have flourished private stations.

"In the same way it seems now to be generally acknowledged that there is a place in Canadian life for the private broadcasting station. No one is presenting before the commission the proposal that the private broadcasting stations should be expropriated although that may be a matter which will have to be considered by you."

"The place, in Canadian life which all agree is proper for the private station is the field of local community broadcasting."

C. Mann, Oak Bay, Kiwanis Official

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—G. O. Rolstad, Tacoma, was elected president of Kiwanis International's Pacific Northwest district today.

Lieutenant-Governors named included:

Charles Mann of Oak Bay, B.C.

Malcolm Chapin, vice-president of the Canadian Junior Chamber of Commerce, called for closer relations between Canada and the U.S. He added that an increase of trade would benefit each country.

He cited the time Canada lifted its embargo on the export of cattle to the U.S. This lowered the price of beef in the U.S., pleasing consumers. But U.S. cattle-raisers objected.

Canadian consumers meanwhile found their prices going up because of the drain of beef to the U.S., and they also objected.

65-Mile Storm Sweeps Ontario, Quebec, Leaving Two Dead

Before blowing itself out in northern Quebec, the gale that swept from Sault Ste. Marie through southern Ontario on Thursday left two Quebec men dead and a trail of wreckage in Ontario and Quebec, with loss as yet unestimated. This car was pinned down by a tree when winds averaging 35 miles per hour swept through Toronto. (S.N.S. Photo)

Eyewitness Tells Of War Veteran's Craze Killings

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP)—A 48-year-old gas and electric company repairman watched a berserk gunman shoot down people "right and left" at a busy Camden intersection today.

William McNeilly of Pennsauken, N.J., an employee of the Public Service Company of New Jersey, said he was making a call in the neighborhood.

This is his description of what he saw:

"I was going north on River Road and I saw a car ahead of me stop and pick up a little girl. I thought it was an accident."

"I was stopped at a corner, waiting for the light to change. I saw a man lying on the steps of a drug store, facing the intersection."

"Suddenly a man rushed down the street, stopped in front of the automobile which had just picked up the little girl."

"I heard two shots and thought someone was shooting at me."

"Three men ran out of a taproom and this other man, who had shot at the car, suddenly began to shoot at these guys who ran out of the taproom. They all fell."

"The killer started running north on 32nd street. He fired wildly into a barber shop, a shoemaker's shop and a sandwich shop."

"A man came out of the taproom and fired at the running killer, but apparently he missed because the man did not halt."

"The man came back to the intersection with his gun still shooting, ran into a grocery store, shot at customers standing there."

"I saw several fall, but I didn't know how badly they were hurt. Shots were also made in the direction of another car in which two women sat."

Empire Games Team May Tour Dominion

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—Part of the Canadian team entered in the Feb. 4-11 Empire Games here next year is likely to compete in other parts of this Dominion before leaving for home, it was disclosed today.

Major Jack Davies of Montreal, secretary of the Empire Games Association of Canada, has advised the organizing committee that some of the team's 80 athletes and 10 officials will not be able to leave until early April owing to transportation difficulties.

Major Davies suggested that team members remaining should compete in other parts of New Zealand while awaiting transportation home. The Canadian proposal is likely to result in numerous applications for the appearance of the Canadians.

Yunan Warlord Rebels

HONGKONG (Reuter)—Yunnan warlord Lu Hsiang reported today in independent control of China's southwest corner—has dealt a deathblow to Nationalist plans for turning west China into a new anti-Communist bastion, political sources here said.

Chinese reports said Gen. Lu, governor of Yunnan province bordering Indo-China and Burma, successfully threw off all government rule during the week-end without bloodshed after giving a Nationalist army 48 hours to quit the provincial capital of Kunming.

One report said this army was crossing the provincial border today. A Nationalist spokesman in Canton said the army was in radio contact with the War Ministry.

Gen. Lu's own forces are not more than 15,000 strong and it is thought unlikely he will be able to establish an independent provincial administration in the face of Communist pressure.

GUERRILLAS BUSY

Strong forces of guerrillas are active in the province though Communist regular armies still are hundreds of miles to the northeast.

The Nationalists, who had only loose control in Yunnan even before Gen. Lu's revolt, now will probably have to revise their plans to establish a new stronghold around their wartime capital of Chungking, observers thought.

Bonus Request Made To B.C. Government

The B.C. Provincial Government Employees' Association has asked the provincial government to pay the cost of living bonus of 10 per cent of wages up to $16 per month due last Thursday.

The request was forwarded to the government by letter.

Kidnap Victim Received Third Degree, He Says

CALGARY (CP)—Ernest Conduit, 66-year-old Vancouver engraver, kidnapped last January by a gang of counterfeiters, charged in an interview today that Vancouver city detectives badgered him for hours with "third degree tactics."

He alleged in an interview that Vancouver detectives tried to make him change his story after he was carried from a Dunbar district home suffering from shock. He was found chained in the basement of the Vancouver house several days after he was kidnapped.

"It was only when the R.C.M.P. intervened that I got decent treatment," Mr. Conduit said.

The elderly engraver stopped over here on a holiday trip to Vancouver. His son, Fred, is partner in an engraving firm here.

Mr. Conduit, still showing the effects of his ordeal, said he lost part of the sight of one eye from the elbow-gouging of gunmen who guarded him day and night for the week he was chained to a bed in the house.

When the kidnappers found he wouldn't co-operate they tried to poison him with strychnine in coffee, Mr. Conduit said.

"But it burned my lips and I threw the coffee under a dressing table and hid the undissolved strychnine pill in an ashtray. Police, who checked my story, found the pill and also the discoloration on the rug where I threw the coffee."
